VICTORIA DOMINOES SUCCESSFUL IN BID FOR CANADIAN TITLE

Establish Early Lead to Come Through With 37-30 Victory Over Windsor in Final Game of Dominion Series at Willows—Hank Rowe Drops Home Twenty Points

THE Sportsman's Cup, smybolic of basketball supremacy in Canada, will remain in the Canadian West for another year, this time in possession of the Victoria Dominoes, successors to the Vancouver Westerns as national champions. Locals won the silverware the hard way by defeating Windsor Alumni, Eastern titleholders, 37-30, in the fifth and final game of the Dominion play-downs, last night at the Victoria Sports Centre.

Dominoes took the two opening fixtures of the Canadian finals with scores of 37-28 and 51-33, but a fighting Windsor quintette came back with 30-24 and 27-25 triumphs in the third and fourth games, respectively, and knotted the series at two games each.

ROWE AGAIN

Lanky "Hank" Rowe, star forward of the Victoria Dominoes whose "antelope" shot makes him a hard man to stop, paced the local hoopsters to a great triumph last night, by scoring twenty points. A consistent point-getter in the series, Rowe topped a grand championship exhibition by scoring the first and final points of the crucial game.

Dominoes played their best basketball in the two opening quarters and managed to set up a fourteen-point lead before the halftime interval arrived. That advantage proved very useful indeed later in the exciting tussle when the Easterners, with their backs to the wall, fought desperately to pull the game out of the fire.

POISON RING SOLD DEATH

Philadelphia Police Linking Suspicious Deaths of Years To Crime Syndicate

PHILADELPHIA, April 28 (AP).—New graves were ordered opened tonight as investigators sought to link every suspicious death in Philadelphia in ten years to a poisoners' syndicate already blamed for scores of insurance murders.

Thirteen persons—most of them widows of poison victims—have been charged with homicide. One man was convicted with recommendation of the death penalty, nine are under arrest, and from their stories police have estimated perhaps 100 persons were killed by the ring in Eastern seaboard states.

Still sought are a witchcraft practitioner known as "Louie the Rabbi" and "professional widow."

INSURED VICTIMS

Police Captain James Kelly said they devised and carried out the plot to "sell death" as cheap as $300, and insured their victims to assure profits.

Latest to be taken into custody was Rafaele "Ralph" Polselli, a boarder at the home of one of the women already arrested.

District Attorney Charles F. Kelley said Polselli confessed he had a part in three slayings, and had named himself as one of the original group in the plot.

The new graves will be opened next week. At that time, officers have predicted, at least twenty-five persons would be under arrest.

From examination of bodies already taken from graves, investigators have built part of their case, showing how insured men marked for death were poisoned so slowly that doctors were fooled.

MURDER VICTIM HAS NEW COAT

Also Hat as Compensation For Being Kidnapped—Abductors Arrested

HAMILTON, Ont., April 28 (CP).—Police tonight pieced together a bizarre plot in which Steve Kir, thirty-six-year-old steel worker, is said to have received a natty Spring overcoat and a new hat for being "murdered."

Two others—Mike Ziribny and Eddie Koshul—are held on vagrancy charges, but Kir himself is not charged. According to police, Kir and Ziribny were in love with the same married woman and Ziribny paid Koshul $250 to put Kir out of the way.

With two other men, Koshul is alleged to have waylaid Kir Sunday night and held him until Thursday night. He told police his abductors informed him they were employed to kill him, but added that if he would disappear for a few days they could convince the man he was dead.

Kir said he spent Monday in Guelph with the pair and then went to Toronto before returning to Hamilton. Police say Koshul obtained the $250 from Ziribny by saying he had dumped Kir in Hamilton Bay.

Before turning Kir loose his abductors are said to have bought him a hat and overcoat and given him $2. He unfolded his story to detectives and the arrests followed.

PAYS FOR TAKING POSTOFFICE INK

"Honest Scot" Sends Ten Cents to Ottawa After Helping Himself For Twenty Years

OTTAWA, April 28 (CP).—The conscience of a man who has been filling his fountain pen from postoffice inkwells for twenty years has finally caught up with him.

Postmaster-General Norman McLary today received the following letter forwarded by the postmaster at Winnipeg:

"Enclosed please find 10 cents. My conscience is bothering me as I have been filling my fountain pen for twenty years from the inkwells in your postoffice. I think the 10 cents should about cover the cost as the ink is not a very good quality anyway."

The letter was signed: "An honest Scot."

Sign Request for Unit of Militia

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C., April 28 (CP).—Fifty young men of this Northern Interior town who attended a meeting of over 100 war veterans tonight, signed a request that a militia unit be formed in Prince George.

Two visiting militia officials—Lieut.-Col. G. R. Turner, of Victoria, and Lieut.-Col. D. Johnson, of Prince Rupert, addressed the enthusiastic meeting of the veterans.

RECALLED FOR TRAINING

ROME, April 28 (AP).—The Ministry of Aeronautics issued orders today recalling reserve captains and lieutenants of the Italian Air Force for sixty-day training. All Air Force non-commissioned officers now on leave also were recalled for similar periods. The first class will be trained in June and July, and the second in August and September.

Destroyers Return From Winter Cruise

Back from their rendezvous with Halifax Division ships and manoeuvres with the America and West Indies Squadron of the Royal Navy, in the Atlantic, H.M.C. destroyers Ottawa, St. Laurent, Restigouche and Fraser came home to Esquimalt yesterday morning. Their arrival attracted numbers of interested spectators as well as the immediate relatives of the officers and ratings aboard.

POLAND NOT BACKING UP

Declares She Will Yield Nothing Under Pressure From Nazis

WARSAW, April 28 (AP).—Poland intensified her military precautions tonight to back up a declaration that she would neither yield any territory in the Polish Corridor to Germany nor submit to Nazi pressure.

A Foreign Office official made known that "no one-sided German decision" regarding Danzig and the Corridor would be accepted.

Besides denouncing the five-year-old German-Polish non-aggression pact, Chancellor Hitler today voiced his first official demand for the return of the free city to Germany and an extra-territorial motor road through the Corridor to connect Germany Proper with German East Prussia.

The Polish War Ministry ordered extra precautions at the Polish-German frontier, where many of Poland's 1,300,000 men under arms now are stationed. Military activity especially was noticeable near Danzig.

Search for Third Gone In Mystery

ENDERBY, B.C., April 28 (CP).—British Columbia police today were using trail dogs in a search of Trinity Valley, south of here, for Joseph Visohlid, the third aged resident of the community to disappear in the past year.

The dogs have twice led searchers to the bank of Trinity Creek where Visohlid's cap was found.

Mrs. Marie Kral disappeared in the district last October and six months previous her father, Menzel Doubek, was reported missing. Neither has been found.

TWO DIE IN CRASH

CAIRO, April 28 (CP-Havas).—Two Royal Air Force officers were killed yesterday when their plane caught fire and fell. Flying Officer David Roderick Hopper and Flying Officer Derek Leslie Rea Hutchinson, both of Squadron No. 208, died in the crash.

Russian Aviators Forced Down on Canadian Island

Attempted Non-Stop Flight to New York From Moscow Ends With Plane Wrecked in Gulf Of St. Lawrence and One Flyer With Broken Wrist

MISCOU ISLAND, N.B., April 28 (CP).—Almost twenty-four hours after leaving Moscow on an attempted non-stop flight to New York, two Russian aviators made a forced landing at 8:55 p.m. A.S.T., (4:55 p.m., P.S.T.) tonight on a marsh on this New Brunswick island situated in the Gulf of St. Lawrence at the northeastern tip of the province.

The twin-motored, red monoplane, named Moskvo (Moscow), was badly damaged, but the airmen escaped injury with the exception that one suffered a broken wrist.

Which one of the two had the injury was unknown, as the islanders, mostly fishermen, speaking only French and English, could not understand the Russians' language. By means of signs they managed to make some things understood.

HEARD MOTORS FAILING

Engine trouble was believed the cause of the forced landing. Residents saw the monoplane circling and heard the motors failing. The weather was fine.

FIGHT STARTED BY FISHERMEN

Six Arrested After Fracas Between Men of Rival Unions in Seattle

SEATTLE, April 28 (AP).—Police halted a fifteen-minute fight between rival fishing union members today and arrested six persons, including two injured men.

Trouble started when a delegation from the C.I.O.-affiliated Alaska Fishermen's Union approached a pier where several cannery tenders were berthed. They were met by a group affiliated with the Cannery Tender's Men's Union, and A.F.L. organization.

The fighting stopped traffic on Fairview Avenue for several minutes, and passersby had to dodge rocks thrown by participants, before police arrived in response to an emergency call.

C. H. Bowman, thirty-three, a negro, was taken to City Hospital with a head injury, and Robert Francisco, twenty-eight, a Filipino, received a knife gash in his left leg. Both were booked at the police station on open charges, as were four other Filipinos.

The C.I.O. group went to the scene to help tender men affiliated with the Alaska Fishermen's Union as they prepared to sail north. The A.F.L. and C.I.O. groups are involved in a jurisdictional dispute.

HOUSEWIVES MAY BOYCOTT BUTCHER

Vancouver League Canvassing Members Regarding Calling of "Meat Strike" as Protest

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP).—The Vancouver Housewives League decided today to canvass their twenty-seven member organizations on the advisability of calling a one-week "meat strike" next month in protest against an alleged rise in beef prices they claim is caused by the British Columbia Beef Grading Act.

If approval of the member organizations is given, the strike will probably be held from May 14 to 21. During that time league members will pledge themselves to boycott retail butcher establishments and refuse to buy any meat whatsoever.

SAIL WITH GOLD

LIVERPOOL, April 28 (AP).—The liners Laconia and Duchess of Bedford sailed tonight with gold cargoes valued at a total of £5,500,000 ($25,740,000). The gold is destined for New York.

INDIAN RESERVE SCENE OF FIRE

Last Old-Time Communal House Destroyed at Duncan—Two Hurt

DUNCAN, April 28 (CP).—Two Indians escaped with minor injuries today when fire destroyed the last of the communal houses on the Indian Reserve, south of here.

Trapped on the blazing roof, Abraham Johnny and Henry James scrambled to safety after they discovered their ladder aflame.

The shake roof and hewn cedar timbers of the old building, which Indians estimated was built 100 years ago, went up like tinder.

Flames reached across the Island Highway, burning telephone wires and cutting off service to Duncan. Sparks from a rubbish fire were blamed for the outbreak.

Two racing canoes, which will be used in ceremonies for the King and Queen at Victoria and Vancouver, were saved from the blaze.

Many Killed in Riots in India

BOMBAY, April 28 (AP).—An estimated sixty-five persons were killed today in Gangpur, a small native state in Eastern India, when police fired on a mob of rioting natives.

The cause of the rioting could not be ascertained immediately although it was reported the mob was incensed by the arrest of a single Indian.

TALKING SOME MORE

BERLIN, April 28 (AP).—Chancellor Hitler is scheduled to make two speeches Monday, a brief one at noon to follow a meeting of the Reich culture chamber in the State Opera House, and another in the evening during a youth celebration of May Day, a Nazi holiday.

Accuses Government Of Following Weak And Wasteful Policy

Conservative Critic Says Administration Has Failed To Keep Control of Expenditures—Urges Leadership Be Given to Industry

OTTAWA, April 28 (CP).—The Government's "failure to control expenditures within its control" and not the cost of unemployment relief or assistance to Western wheat growers caused the heavy deficit, Hon. J. Earl Lawson, Conservative financial critic, told the House of Commons today.

Setting debate in motion on the budget Hon. Charles Dunning, Minister of Finance, presented on Monday, Mr. Lawson accused the Liberal administration of following a weak and wasteful policy and urged it to give leadership to industry and the people by adopting a policy leading to tax reductions.

While approving the Government plan to extend income tax exemptions for firms embarking on construction and plant extension, he doubted it would achieve the results expected. A far greater stimulus to new industry would result from a five-year guarantee against tariff reductions except on the recommendation of the tariff board.

When offering this measure of tax reduction to industry, Mr. Lawson thought the Government should also have offered some encouragement

HITLER CANCELS TWO TREATIES; LEAVES DOOR OPEN FOR PEACE

German Chancellor Scraps Naval Pact With Great Britain and Non-Aggression Agreement With Poland—Replies to Roosevelt's Proposals in Defiant Tone But Offers Reciprocal Accords

Reiterates Colonial Claims; Seeks Return of Danzig State

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
Associated Press Foreign Staff

BERLIN, April 28 (AP).—Chancellor Hitler today scrapped his naval treaty with Great Britain and his non-aggression pact with Poland and thundered a reply to President Roosevelt's proposals which sounded like defiance but let the outside world see the door ajar for peace.

He declined to give the guarantees of non-agression for thirty-one nations listed by Roosevelt in his April 14 appeals to Hitler and Premier Mussolini but offered each state a non-agression assurance "on the condition of absolute reciprocity provided that the state wishes it and itself addresses to Germany a request for such assurance."

COLONIAL CLAIMS

He defied the world to stand in the way of Germany's regaining what she lost in the Great War—though he specifically named Alsace-Lorraine, which went back to France, as a main exception—and asked President Roosevelt to fulfill "the promises" of President Wilson "that German colonial claims" would receive "just examination."

Cancellations of the 1935 naval pact with Britain, which limited the German navy to 35 per cent of the tonnage of Britain's fleet, and of the German-Polish non-aggression pact were delivered to the London and Warsaw Governments.

He blamed Poland's calling up of troops "although Germany on her part has not called up a single man and has not thought of proceeding in any way against Poland" for ending the German-Polish treaty.

Hitler spoke for two hours and

Coast Cities Are Bombed By Japanese

AMOY, April 28 (AP).—Japanese airplanes have been bombing Fukien and Chekiang Province cities along the Chinese coast throughout the week, possibly in preparation for naval action to close the last open Central and South China ports.

Casualties in Foochow and Wenchow alone were estimated today to total several hundred.

A single bomb was reported to have killed 100 travellers lodged in a hotel at Foochow while awaiting ships.

FRANCE FEELS TENSION EASED

Germany Offers to Sell Seized Czech War Equipment to French

PARIS, April 28 (AP).—Tension lightened in Paris today as a result of Chancellor Hitler's Reichstag speech and with disclosure Germany had offered to sell seized Czech war equipment to France.

French diplomats took the view that while the Fuehrer broke off accords with Poland and Great Britain, he left the way open for new negotiations.

"Whereas previous Hitler speeches have been dynamic," said one high official, "this one is static. It is more like a lawyer's brief."

SITUATION NOT CHANGED

French officials considered it largely an "embarrassed" explanation of the Hitler policies. They agreed it failed to modify the situation.

Disclosure that the Reich was seeking to dispose of some of the armaments seized in the Nazi occupation of Bohemia and Moravia last March strengthened hopes for maintenance of peace.

Nearly 1,600 Czech war planes which became German property headed the list of equipment offered to France, these sources said.

The offer to sell armaments was not made solely to France, it was understood, but also extended to other countries. At least a part of the seized material has been shipped to Italy.

HOUSES AND BRIDGES BURNED AT NELSON

NELSON, B.C., April 28 (CP).—Seven houses and four Great Northern Railway bridges were destroyed today when a slashing fire got out of control and spread rapidly before a light wind near Beaver Falls, thirty miles south of here.

The houses were among ten built in the new community during the last year by employees of Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company at a total cost of $6,200.

PUTS BLAME ON GERMANY

Poland Willing to Negotiate Danzig Issue but Warns Against Pressure

WARSAW, April 28 (AP).—Poland will yield no territory in the Polish corridor, she will not submit to pressure, she is willing to negotiate on Danzig and other questions but Germany has prevented such negotiations, an official of the Foreign Office declared after Chancellor Hitler's speech today.

Hitler denounced the Polish ten-year non-aggression pact, and demanded return of the Free State of Danzig and an extra-territorial motor road through the Polish corridor to connect Germany proper with German East Prussia.

WARNS AGAINST PRESSURE

Of this, the Polish spokesman said:

"Germany knows very well she cannot apply to Poland the methods that she has already applied in Eastern Europe — accomplished facts and pressure."

Any attempt at pressure, he said, would be answered "promptly and in the same manner." (Poland has in arms more than 1,300,000 soldiers).

The Foreign Office official declared emphatically that Poland would not accept the demand for the motor road.

WILLING TO NEGOTIATE

But he did say that Poland was willing to treat with Germany to offer her all possible technical facilities for communications between the two sections of Germany without giving up "in the slightest degree," her sovereignty in the corridor—only Polish avenue to the sea.

Hitler's demands, presented in a memorandum by the Nazi Charge d'Affaires in Warsaw shortly before the Chancellor spoke, will be treated seriously by Poland, the spokesman continued, but he held:

"No one-sided German decision regarding Danzig and Pomorze (the corridor) will be accepted."

Rescued When Inn Burned to Ground

NEPPEL, April 28 (CP).—Loren Harris, owner of the Moses Lane Inn, was rescued on his own mattress today when the inn and an adjoining annex burned to the ground.

Harris, ill from a heart attack suffered a week ago, was in bed when fire broke out on the roof of the three-story hotel. Truck drivers living at the inn carried him from the blazing building.

RESCUED FROM BURNING BRUSH

Young Woman Snatched to Safety by Horseback Rider in Alberta

CALGARY, April 28 (CP).—Myrtle E. Massie, twenty-one, of Viking, Alta., snatched by a horseback rider after being trapped in a forest fire, was recovering from severe body burns in Holy Cross Hospital here tonight.

Miss Massie, thrown off a wagon carrying equipment to twenty firefighters two miles southwest of Bragg Creek, Alta., was rescued by her brother-in-law, E. Jamieson. But before Jamieson reached her, she suffered back, chest, arm and leg burns, received while she lay on burning brush.

Drs. Hugh Stuart and G. D. Stanley reported Miss Massie was making fine progress.

Several families in the district, thirty miles southwest of Calgary, prepared to evacuate their homes tonight. Fire-fighters, however, reported the blaze appeared to be under control tonight.

An area approximately a mile wide and two miles long was burned over. No buildings were destroyed.

Collapse of Bench Costs Big Damages

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP).—Mr. Justice A. I. Fisher in Supreme Court today held Union Estates, Limited, negligent for the collapse of a bench on their Bowen Island property last Summer and awarded damages totaling $2,070 to five plaintiffs.

Three women—Mrs. Catherine Kennedy, Mrs. Gladys McLeod and Mrs. Sarah A. Brooks—were injured when the bench collapsed while they sat on it. Two of the women sued with their husbands and the other launched suit herself.

Dominion Income Tax Returns Due By Monday Night

J. SLADE Stevens, of the Dominion income tax office, announces that his office, 320 Postoffice Building, will remain open for the convenience of the public until 5 p.m. on Saturday, April 29, and until 6 p.m. on Monday, May 1. After May 1 the imposition of penalties for late filing is mandatory.

German Denunciation Of Naval Treaty Not Unexpected in London

Note Abrogating Accord With Great Britain Offers To Negotiate New Agreement—Nothing Seen In Hitler's Speech to Ease Tension

LONDON, April 28 (CP).—Prime Minister Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary Halifax had a long conference today at 10 Downing Street after Chancellor Hitler's Reichstag speech in which he denounced the naval treaty with Britain and the German-Polish treaty, and ridiculed President Roosevelt's peace plea.

Official British circles were neither surprised nor concerned over his denunciation of the naval treaty, although they insisted it could not be done except by joint action of the two countries.

There was far more concern here over denunciation of the German-Polish "No More War" Treaty which was supposed to guarantee peace between the countries until 1944.

The key to the situation arising from the speech appeared in notes for denunciation of the two treaties. These notes, despite Hitler's protestations of peace implied Germany demands a free hand in Eastern Europe regards the anti-aggression movement as "encirclement" and in effect warns Britain to change her foreign policy.

The general reaction to the speech here was that it was a cleverly-

Young Canadians Give Display of Physical Fitness

Demonstration by 450 Members of Recreation Centres Witnessed by More Than 2,000 Persons At Armoury — Ian Eisenhardt Tells of Rapid Growth of Movement

DEMONSTRATING in spectacular manner the physical perfection achieved by the young men and women of the province through the instruction and training provided by the recreational and physical education branch of the Department of Education, approximately 350 girls and more than 100 men of the Greater Victoria and district recreation centres presented a highly interesting and effective mass display of gymnastics and dancing in the Armoury last night.

The exhibition was witnessed by more than 2,000 spectators, who filled the galleries of the building and occupied all available space on the main floor. About 500 others were reported to have been turned away from the doors.

GRAND MARCH

Following an impressive grand march—in which the girls in their smart blue and white uniforms, carrying Canadian flags, and the men, bared to the waist to show their fine physique, executed some intricate manoeuvres—P. Walker, representing Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, officially opened the display, and spoke of Dr. Weir's keen interest in the movement since its inception five years ago.

Ian Eisenhardt, provincial director of recreation centres, in a brief address, explained that the movement was launched with 3,000 members, and today the total membership throughout the province had grown to nearly 35,000.

"We have shown through the youth movement that the democratic countries can be as efficient as the totalitarian states," Mr. Eisenhardt declared. The success of the movement, he said, was due to the inspiration and leadership of Dr Weir, and the whole-hearted support of Hon. G. S. Pearson, Minister of Labor.

WITHIN REACH OF ALL

"Physical education and training are now within the reach of all in the province," he concluded.

The well-varied programme was arranged by Mrs. Joan Horsfield, instructress in charge, and Alfred Batchelor, instructor in charge of Victoria activities, with the assistance of Misses Frances Borde, Nona Butts, Dorcen Dale-Johnson and Theresa Lee-Warner, and A. Dawkins and E. Moyes.

A display of fundamental gymnastics by the men followed the addresses, and after them came a demonstration of special activities by the women and girls, under the direction of Mrs. Horsfield. Simultaneously, four groups gave exhibitions of tumbling and vaulting, bench work, ball exercises, and passive exercises, performed in unison to music.

Springboard tumbling was demonstrated by the men, and as a special feature, exhibitions on the springboard were given by Victor Allard and James Wallace, of Vancouver, members of the Canadian championship gymnastic team, with Edward Kelter, instructor.

STRIKING DISPLAY

Particularly effective was a display of fundamental gymnastics by the women and girls, in twelve ranks of seventeen. The 208 young women, filling the entire floor of the building, performed their many different exercises in perfect unison, and gave a remarkable demonstration of physical fitness.

Special activities of the men's groups in Greater Victoria and Up-Island centres were strikingly illustrated in a mass display of pyramid-building, basketball, weight-lifting, parallel-bar work, balancing, and springboard tumbling, and later the men performed many difficult feats of tumbling and partner-tumbling, and vaulting over the high and low boxes. The latter display was given by the Lake Hill and Esquimalt, Mid-Island, Victoria, Mount View, and Sooke centres. A special demonstration of tumbling was given by Robert Bennett, James Wallace, Victor Allard and Edward Kelter.

YOUTH HOSTELS

Included in the programme to direct attention to the international youth hostel plan successfully launched last year, a bicycling number was a graceful novelty item, with comic effects by Ernest Grant, Vancouver.

One hundred of the younger women members, attired in smart and colorful uniforms, performed clever military tap dances under the spotlights, and later the women and girls danced a particularly effective Hallowe'en Masquerade.

The concluding item was a spectacular mass dance number by the women and girls, in full costume, including the Swedish Schottische, Ace of Diamonds, Barn Dance, Ribbon Dance, and Polka. By request, the grand march was repeated at the close of the programme.

Mr. Eisenhardt warmly congratulated those who had taken part in the display and the instructors on the success of their efforts.

Takes Over Duties at Pretoria

DR. RODERICK O. REDMAN

FORMERLY of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory staff, Saanich, arrived recently in Pretoria, South Africa, where he has been given the position of assistant director of the new observatory. Since leaving here nine years ago Dr. Redman has been assistant director of the Solar Physics Observatory at Cambridge. Accompanying him to Africa were his wife, remembered here as Miss Bancroft, a talented violinist, and their small son.

DENUNCIATION NOT SURPRISE IN LONDON

drafted appeal for internal consumption in Germany, with Hitler drumming into the ears of his followers that he is not responsible for any disturbances of peace.

STATEMENT NEXT WEEK

The Prime Minister probably will make a statement next week on the general European situation and perhaps will be in a position to announce something definite on Anglo-Russian negotiations. Soviet Ambassador Maisky returned to London today after consulting with his Government.

Shortly after Hitler spoke, Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said Britain's new policy in Europe was the result of "the action of Germany."

"The thing that has changed British policy and changed it with unanimous approval is the action of Germany," he said. "It is no longer true that German policy is limited to bring Germans within the Reich.

"Recent actions go further than that, and if these actions portend an effort at domination over the rest of Europe it is an effort which Britain must oppose."

British naval quarters were indifferent to Germany's threats to build up beyond the 100-35 ratio established by the 1935 agreement. They pointed out that the expense of a capital ship race would be much harder on Germany than on Britain.

OPINIONS NOT SETTLED

There still was some disagreement in diplomatic circles tonight regarding the more purely political phases of the speech, but this much was generally agreed:

1. The speech was relatively moderate in tone, but still did nothing to relieve the tension.

2. Hitler's disclosure of negotiations between Germany and Poland have made it difficult for either to make concessions.

3. By his reference to Britain's colonial record, Hitler made a renewed bid for support of those Britons who in the past have favored some colonial readjustment in Germany's favor.

4. Hitler ignored the offer of Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax to give a specific pledge that Britain has no intention to encircle Germany.

Prime Minister Chamberlain left to spend the week-end in the country at Chequers.

Stocks were firm after delivery of the speech.

DELIVERS NAVAL NOTE

Special English-language copies of Hitler's speech were flown here by a military airplane and delivered by the German Charge d'Affaires, Dr. T. Kordt, at the Foreign Office just as the Fuehrer began speaking. He also delivered a note denouncing the naval treaty.

In this note the German Government said that the British Government by its "encirclement policy" had "one-sidedly withdrawn the basis" for the naval treaty "and therefore nullified" it "as well as the 'declaration' of July 17, 1937, complementing it."

The note contained the offer of a new agreement in these words:

The German Government, in case the Royal British Government attaches value to entering into negotiations anew with Germany concerning problems relative thereto, will gladly do so. It would be happy if it then proved possible to arrive at a clear and unequivocal understanding in a safe basis."

HITLER CANCELS TWO TREATIES

SPEECH TO BE REPLY

The German Government considered the speech as Hitler's official reply to President Roosevelt's message and as such its text was handed to Raymond H. Geist, United States Charge D'Affaires, for transmission to Washington.

To the United States the Fuehrer also gave "an assurance regarding those territories which would after all give him (Roosevelt) the most cause for apprehension, namely the United States itself and the other states of the American continent."

He disclosed for the first time "my one and only offer" to Poland concerning the Free State of Danzig and Pomorze (the Polish Corridor), which he said Poland rejected.

The terms of the offer were:

Return of Danzig a part of German, before the Great War, as a free state into the framework of the German state, a sovereign German route and a railway line at Germany's disposal across the Corridor, to connect East Prussia with the rest of Germany, a free harbor at Danzig for Poland, acceptance of present boundaries between the two countries as final; a twenty-five-year non-aggression treaty; and a guarantee of the independence of Slovakia by Germany, Poland and Hungary.

GIVES MIXED IMPRESSION

Much of the world, through the medium of broadcasts, listened to his words in which sarcasm, irony and ridicule alternated with humbleness before providence and psychological adaptation to the need of the moment for a conciliatory gesture.

His speech was unusual in that it conveyed one impression to the listeners and an almost opposite one to the readers.

His listeners were almost exclusively the 80,000,000 persons in Germany and the scattered millions throughout the world who understand German.

To them, and especially to the few thousand who sat in the opera house, the address decidedly was one of uncompromising defiance.

His readers on the other hand were men and women in every country who became acquainted with at least the gist of his speech in the particular language of their native land.

LEAVES DOOR OPEN

To them, and especially to those responsible for the conduct of governments, the written speech would seem to leave the door open to further negotiation.

To those who were doubtful as to where Hitler intended to lay the emphasis, an action which was announced in detail several hours after his speech gave a clue.

His words concerning Anglo-German and Polish-German relations were followed with the release for publication of two diplomatic documents which showed that Germany regarded the 1935 naval pact with Britain and the ten-year non-aggression pact of 1934 with Poland as non-existent.

Even these documents, however, concluded with expressions of willingness to negotiate new agreements.

Similarly, Hitler said "no" to Roosevelt in answer to his request for guarantees for thirty-one states against attack for at least ten years—but at the same time offered to make reciprocal peace pacts with any state that would express such a desire to Germany and make suitable proposals.

APPEALS TO ROOSEVELT

Further illustrating the double effect achieved by Hitler's formulations were two of the Fuehrer's concrete appeals to Roosevelt which may be summed up as follows:

1. Remove the barriers to a genuinely free world trade, beginning with the United States.

2. Devote yourself to seeing that the promises of President Wilson "be at last redeemed on the basis of which Germany once laid down her arms"—"just examination" of German colonial claims.

Passages in the speech on these two points read like a lawyer's brief. But to those who sat in the Reichstag, these "appeals" were delivered in a manner that conveyed bitter sarcasm and irony with no indication that Hitler expected even remotely that Roosevelt would heed them.

During his far-flung expose of German policy, the fifty-year-old ruler of Germany drew applause again and again by formulating anew his arguments against international conferences.

HOPES TO AVOID ARMS RACE

He said he still hoped Germany would be able to avoid an armaments race with Britain, and added:

"A genuine lasting friendship between these two nations is conceivable only on the basis of mutual regards."

"I have never left room for any doubt of my belief that the existence of this (British) Empire is an estimable factor of value for the whole of human cultural and economic life," he said.

"By whatever means Great Britain has acquired her colonial territories—and I know that they were those of force and often brutality—nevertheless I know full well that no other empire has ever come into being in any other way and that in the final resort it is not so much the methods that are taken into account in history as the success, and not the success of the methods as such but rather the general good which the methods yield. Now there is no doubt that the Anglo-Saxon people have accomplished immeasurable colonizing work in the world. For this work I have sincere admiration.

"I regard it as impossible to achieve lasting friendship between the German and Anglo-Saxon peoples if the other side does not recognize that there are German as well as British interests, that not only is preservation of the British Empire the meaning and purpose of the lives of Britons, but also that for Germans, freedom and preservation of the German Reich is their life and purpose."

Vancouver's Mayor Expects to Appoint Advisory Committee

Will Draw From All Walks of Life to Assure Representative Body—Sees Danger of Canada Turning From Democracy

CALGARY, April 28 (CP).—Mayor J. Lyle Telford, Vancouver, said here tonight that on his return to Vancouver he hopes to appoint an advisory committee on civic affairs to assist him.

Members of the committee would be drawn from all walks of life, including representatives of service clubs, ratepayers' organizations, trades and business groups, he said.

In an address at a meeting sponsored by the League for Peace and Democracy, Vancouver's Chief Magistrate declared that today's grave danger is that people in Canada will turn to something else than democracy. "If democracy is going to survive, it must devise ways and means of feeding our people," he said.

GERMANY AND CANADA

Mayor Telford recalled a story of a Vancouver boy who he said visited Germany and described conditions there and in Canada as follows: "In Germany they let you eat but they don't let you talk. In Canada they let you talk but they don't let you eat."

Democracy had broken down for some 2,000,000 people in Canada, said Mayor Telford. "I don't believe in relief and I don't believe in charity . . . Every man must have an opportunity to make his contribution to society."

A change was inevitable and "we might be able to change from a competitive to a co-operative society without a bloody revolution," he said.

RESOLUTION IS FAVORED HERE

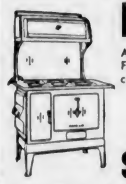

Chamber Endorses Proposed Restrictions on Naturalized Germans

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Junior Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning a resolution from the Saskatoon Young Men's Board of Trade, suggesting to the Government certain restrictions on naturalized Germans living in Canada, was endorsed.

One clause asked that all newspapers and periodicals published in Canada, in a language other than the official languages, submit one copy of every edition, immediately upon publication, to the Department of the Secretary of State. Other clauses concerned the status of naturalized Germans in this country.

W. C. Mearns was named chairman of the industrial tours committee, which will arrange, from time to time, tours of the various manufacturing plants in Greater Victoria.

In response to a suggestion from the local junior chamber that the Government issue a special sixteen-cent stamp to cover air mail and special delivery, P. T. Coolican, Assistant Deputy Postmaster-General, Ottawa, replied that as a special commemorative issue in connection with the Royal Visit was being printed, any further expenditure of this kind during this fiscal year could not be carried out. However, he expressed the thanks of the department, adding that it always considered suggestions of this kind helpful.

Special Elephant Shower Bath

Finding Victoria's Spring weather a little too warm for her liking, Mona, nine-year-old baby Indian elephant, appearing at Polack Bros. Shrine Circus this week, enjoyed a self-administered shower bath in front of the Central Building, View Street, on Thursday. Mona attracted an interested crowd as she trundled through the downtown streets, and enjoyed handfuls of peanuts from the hands of circus attendants. The two-ton performer was more pleased, however, when a bucketful of water was brought, and she sprayed her leathery sides.

Court of Appeal

Victoria Sittings

Present: Martin, C.J.B.C., Macdonald, McQuarrie, Sloan and O'Halloran, JJ.A.

Canadian Soaps, Ltd. (A) vs. Vancouver Board of Assessment Appeals (R).—The Court of Appeal here yesterday dismissed the appeal of the Canadian Soaps, Ltd. The Department of Marine leased certain land at Vancouver Harbor to the company, and the City of Vancouver levied municipal taxes against the company on the full market value of the land. The company appealed against this assessment. The appeal was heard on Thursday.

In pronouncing the judgment of the court yesterday, Hon. Archer Martin, C.J.B.C., stated that the members of the court were unanimously of the opinion that the appeal should be dismissed because there had been no departure by the assessor from the provisions of the statute, and that the interest of the company, as lessee, was properly assessed, under the provisions of the statute, on the basis of the actual cash value of the land.

With regard to the constitutional question raised by the appellant as to whether the City of Vancouver, acting under provincial legislation, could tax the occupier of Dominion lands, the Chief Justice of British Columbia stated that the members of the court were unanimously of the opinion that the case was governed by the decision of the Privy Council in Montreal City vs. Attorney-General for Canada (1923) Appeal Cases, 136.

W. E. Burns, K.C., for the appellant; D. E. McTaggart, for the respondent; and H. Alan Maclean, for the Attorney-General of British Columbia.

Rex (R) vs. Roy Bowcott (A).—The Court of Appeal unanimously dismissed the appeal of Roy Bowcott from his conviction at the last Victoria Assizes. The prisoner was convicted of breaking and entering the Government liquor store at Sidney, B.C., and sentenced to three years. He applied for leave to appeal on the ground that one of the members of the jury was disqualified because he had been convicted of an indictable offence and had not received a pardon. The prisoner had not known that one of the members of the jury was disqualified until after the jury had brought in their verdict. The fact, however, was brought to the attention of the trial judge before sentence was passed.

The issue was discussed in the light of the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada in Rex vs. Stewart (1932) Supreme Court Reports, 612, in the case of Rex vs. Stewart, which was tried at the City of Victoria, a juryman was similarly disqualified, but no objection was taken until after sentence had been passed. The Supreme Court of Canada held that the curative sections of the Canadian Criminal Code prohibited the granting of a new trial on the ground of the disqualification of a juryman where no objection was taken until after sentence had been passed, and that such would also be the case where objection was taken before sentence was passed, but after the jury had returned their verdict.

The Chief Justice of British Columbia, in pronouncing the judgment of the Court of Appeal stated that he and the other members of the court was bound by the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada on the question, and that the appeal must be dismissed.

The appellant appeared in person, J. B. Clearihue, K.C., for the Crown.

Present: Martin, C.J.B.C., Sloan and O'Halloran, JJ.A.

Rex (R) vs. Donald MacDonald (A).—The Court of Appeal here yesterday dismissed the motion for leave to appeal of Donald MacDonald from his conviction on March 22, of obtaining money on false pretenses from the Employment Relief Department of the Department of Pensions and National Health. The prisoner was convicted of obtaining $1,853.00 from the Relief Department by alleging that his wife was in receipt of only casual employment, whereas in fact she was employed by David Spencer, Ltd., Vancouver. The prisoner was sentenced to one year by Magistrate H. S. Wood.

The prisoner appealed on the ground that his wife was used in evidence against him by being brought into court for identification. He submitted that the Canada Evidence Act provided that the wife of an accused person could not be used as evidence by the Crown.

The Chief Justice of British Columbia pointed out that the Act applied to the "giving" of evidence by the wife of an accused person, and the appeal was dismissed.

The appellant appeared in person; H. Richmond for the Crown.

VICTORIA IS NOW MARKED ON MAPS

City Recognized on Route of Trans-Canada Airplanes, Publicity Bureau Directors Told

The board of directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau was advised yesterday that a complaint, regarding Victoria being left off the Trans-Canada Air Lines map, has been remedied. Officials advised the bureau that when the first programme was published in January the Victoria - Vancouver service was not included in the service. New maps will show Victoria.

George I. Warren, commissioner, reported on his attendance at the Pan-American conference held recently in San Francisco, and Ivan Beecroft, of the local bureau, gave an account of his work in Los Angeles and surrounding cities.

The Oregon State Hotel Association wrote the bureau extending its thanks for the number of tourists the Victoria office had attracted through Oregon and the Pacific Northwest.

Mr. Warren told the directors Victoria had been given a prominent place in a State of Washington folder that is being distributed at both the New York and San Francisco World's Fairs.

RUSSIAN AVIATORS ARE FORCED DOWN

kinaki, the pilot, and Major Mihail Gordienko, navigator, decided to stay by the plane overnight. They made signs to Lawrence Vibert and other residents for food, and they returned to their homes to bring back supplies.

Both wings and both propellers of the plane were broken and one motor was out of commission. It was evident that the Moskva could not be flown from the island.

A Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman at Shippegan, twenty-five miles from Miscou, prepared to leave for the island at 5 a.m. with Dr. A. Robichaud, of nearby Tracadie. The injured airman lay tonight on an improvised bed beside the plane.

IN NO DANGER

OTTAWA April 28 (CP)—Plans to have the icebreaker Montcalm go to the aid of Russian long distance flyers down on Miscou Island, off the northeastern tip of New Brunswick, were canceled tonight when Dominion Government officials were advised that the airmen were in no danger.

FOLK DANCES ARE POPULAR

Crowded Gallery Watches 1,100 School Children in Annual Contest

An audience, which crowded the gallery and all available floor seats, was present at the Victoria High School gymnasium yesterday afternoon to watch the fascinating programme of singing-games and Scandinavian and British folk-dances, given by about 1,100 school children of the city, Grades 1 to 8.

This was the first part of the folk-dance section of Victoria's annual Musical Festival, representing the public schools' entry. Miss Barbara Hinton, the adjudicator, in her comments, was very complimentary to the expert character of instruction apparent in the work of the various folk-dance classes, which operate under the new curriculum's physical training and health programme. Three periods are provided weekly for all children and the encouragement given by the Municipal Inspector, George Deane, was seen in the finished nature of the performances. W. H. Muncey, who has directed this section of the Festival since its inception, was again in charge and the groups moved on and off the floor with good discipline.

Among the spectators was the whole student-body of the Provincial Normal School, Mount Tolmie, present for the educational value of the exhibition.

The second and final part of the folk-dance festival will take place at the High School tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock, Mr. Muncey announced. Practically all the entries will be in costume.

HELPFUL HINTS

Teachers, even more than children, received many helpful suggestions in Miss Hinton's adjudications yesterday. Referring to the Swedish Klapdanz (clap-dance) done by some of the classes, she reminded them that the Swedish people were noted for their happiness in dancing and that this should always be expressed in any folk-dance derived from Sweden. Grade 3 Quadra Primary School, winner of Class 141, presented, with a pretty group of girls, the "Rosalille," a Danish dance very popular at social functions, it was explained. The Swedish ring-dance should always be spontaneous in spirit, and in the Norwegian Mountain March, the dance chosen by Monterey School, Grade 4, Class 142, teachers were advised that the leader should lean forward and the two in the rear of the group of three should lean back, as this would give a more effective line and expression. Sir James Douglas School entry, with a group of forty-eight girls, were the winners in this class, with the Swedish ring-dance. They had kept thier circles well, and the partners co-operated nicely.

ENGLISH FOLK-DANCE

The largest group in the course of the afternoon was in Class 143, English or Scottish folk-dance, Grades 5 and 6. George Jay School, which tied for first place with Monterey Avenue School, brought on a group of seventy-two girls in the singing-dance, "If all the world were paper." Monterey Avenue School danced "Sellinger's Round." The adjudicator specially expressed her pleasure in seeing such a large group as that entered by George Jay, complimenting them on their excellent formation. "Black Nag," the dance chosen by Sir James Douglas School, introduced another large group of thirty-six girls with garlands in their hair. This group was reminded to listen, in the rhythm, for the sound of the horse's gallop. That spirit should come into the dance.

"In English folk-dancing the hand, when not in use, is usually relaxed hanging at the side," she warned the English folk-dance groups.

In connection with the two succeeding European folk-dance classes, North Ward School, dancing the Danish "Crested Hen," was told that the Dance made this a highly vigorous thing, the idea being that one dancer in the group of three wore a crest in the hat which the other dancers tried to take away.

North Ward School and South Park School tied in the Grades 7 and 8 competition, the former with a Swedish schottische, danced by twenty-eight girls, again winning commendation for the large number, and the latter with the "Fjallnalspolaska," also Swedish, danced by sixteen girls in peasant dress.

HERR HITLER'S SPEECH

Judging from the experience of the past it matters hardly at all what Herr Hitler says; it is his actions that affect the status of other nations; he may only be judged by deeds, not words. Much that he said in his widely heralded speech to the Reichstag yesterday was discounted in advance. He threw no new light on the European situation. He has refused to agree to the methods of appeasement proposed by President Roosevelt of the United States, but offers instead to negotiate mutual non-agression pacts with individual countries who may believe that their independence is not respected by Germany. He has intimated, though not saying so specifically, that Germany will dictate the terms of any conference of the future in which that country is engaged. His promise to negotiate a series of non-aggression pacts, presumably with the small nations of Europe, can only be appraised in its significance on the basis of the respect that he paid to the Munich Pact, which was signed by himself, by his partner in the Berlin-Rome Axis and by Great Britain and France as well. That pact was broken, without notice being given to the contracting parties, without any intimation of the intention being conveyed to Rome.

There are two facts that emerge from the Reichstag speech. One is that Germany has denounced the Anglo-German Naval Agreement which provided that she should only maintain a naval strength not greater than one-third of that of Great Britain, exception being made in the case of submarines. In this fact having been announced in such a way there is an instance of the methods employed by German diplomacy. In the case of the denunciation by one country of agreements or treaties it is international usage to given official notification to the other country, or countries, concerned through the customary diplomatic channels. Herr Hitler has not done this; instead he has chosen to make his announcement to the Reichstag before officially notifying Great Britain. He did not consult the Reichstag before reaching his decision, because that is not the method of totalitarianism. He simply announced that he was repudiating the treaty.

The second fact that emerges from his speech is that he has denounced the ten-year mutual non-aggression pact with Poland. He has done this because of Poland's mutual assistance pact with Great Britain and France. Of his purpose in this respect Poland has received its first intimation in the speech of yesterday. It was not notified officially in advance. Herr Hitler believes himself beyond and above the laws which govern diplomatic usage. He makes his announcements of his intentions to German audiences, as if it were they alone who matter in the relationships between nations. He disclosed that he had made an offer to Poland for the return of Danzig, but he appears to have asked that country to give up a great deal more than was considered possible and it was refused. For whatever his promise may be worth Herr Hitler has intimated his willingness to negotiate for the return to the Reich of Danzig, but presumably only by the method of a conference of his own devising, and only by way of a conference between Germany and Poland. Danzig and the corridor are held under a mandate of the League of Nations, and, therefore, members of that League are concerned, as well as Germany and Poland.

Herr Hitler, when German troops occupied Czecho-Slovakia, definitely turned his back on Mr. Neville Chamberlain's appeasement policy. He has now turned his back on the appeasement methods suggested by the President of the United States. There is the implication in the Reichstag speech that whatever appeasement there is, whatever non-aggression pacts there are, he wishes to dictate. He says that Germany hereafter will be an armed Germany when she attends any conference, and he has implied that where non-aggression is concerned Germany will only confer with the nation that believes its independence is not respected. In other words there is a denial that Germany is prepared to be a partner in a world peace conference. There is, therefore, absolute rejection of Mr. Roosevelt's proposal. His gesture has fallen on barren ground. Herr Hitler talks much of peace, but it is to be peace of a character which he will dictate, and it must be consonant with what he regards as Germany's legitimate aspirations. In any non-aggression pacts he would make he would stipulate that there must be economic reciprocity. He suggested that and something more in his proposals to Poland for the return of Danzig to the Reich. There are overbalancing advantages to Germany regarded as essential in whatever undertaking she is prepared to enter into with the smaller nations of Europe, as there was in the case of her recent trade pact with Roumania.

The speech to the Reichstag leaves the situation in Europe exactly where it was before it was delivered and exactly where it was before Mr. Roosevelt's message was conveyed to Berlin and Rome. Since the occupation of Czecho-Slovakia and the violation of the Munich Agreement no reliance has been placed in the Anglo-German Naval Agreement. Its denunciation, threatened by Herr Hitler some weeks ago, is now an accomplished fact. It is a thinly-veiled answer to Great Britain's decision to establish a measure of compulsory military service, and yet another illustration that under Nazism, the word of Germany may not be trusted and its signature at any time may be repudiated. It is said in many quarters that in no sense was the Reichstag speech provocative. Possibly that is a first impression, since the speech was beclouded so much with demagogic statement. Herr Hitler has a habit of alluding to history to justify his course of action, and he seeks to condone by its annals the presumption that Germany, in the course she has pursued, has always been in the right. He does not hesitate even to falsify history where war guilt is concerned. His speech, though not couched in such hysterical vein as some of the past, was provocative in the sense that it implied that in international relationships Germany would be a law unto herself, that it was an armed Germany that would do any negotiating that was to be done in the future, and that only such negotiating would be possible with individual nations which approach Herr Hitler on the subject.

Great Britain will, in every eventuality, regard the speech as not altering the European situation in any way. France will regard it with complacency; Premier Daladier did not even listen to the broadcast. The chief repercussions are likely to be in the United States, and to be mainly of a character of internal political importance. There are those who will consider that President Roosevelt has been slighted and will be proportionately aggrieved. There is another set of opinion which will believe that the Chief Executive of the neighboring country should never have made his gesture, and will use Herr Hitler's reply as a further argument that the United States should cease to attempt to influence the course of events in Europe. What the President himself will have learned is what Mr. Neville Chamberlain stated some weeks ago when he refused to invite the nations to a peace conference, namely, that the time is not auspicious and that a conference that failed would be worse than no conference. What the world has learned, what indeed it knew before Herr Hitler made his latest Reichstag speech, is that there is no policy of general appeasement possible while totalitarianism is in the saddle.

SUBMARINE STRENGTH

The repudiation by Germany of the Anglo-German Naval Agreement will probably lead to renewed warship construction in that country. She has a lot of iceway to make up before a strength is reached equivalent to that of the High Seas Fleet in 1914. If Germany were to engage in war with a naval power she would have to rely largely on her submarine strength. Her present U-boat fleet, built or projected, numbers seventy-two craft. Of the total only fifteen are over 700 tons displacement, that is, regarded as offensive submarines, and some of these are not suited for warfare on commerce such as was carried out by Germany in the Great War. Thirty-three of the U-boats are so small (250 tons) that they are only suitable for operations in the Baltic. From a naval standpoint Germany is weak. Her reliance in any great war would be on her strength on land and in the air.

AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY FOR AUSTRALIA

Australia is marshalling engineering resources to provide an industry which will build 800 military aircraft annually. It is being established now at Fishermen's Bend beside the mouth of the Yarra River. Supplies for the industry will be obtained from engineering shops which use all types of machine work, casting and assembly. The parts for the airplanes will be manufactured by sub-contractors. The Commonwealth has practically all the metals required, except aluminum. The tools needed are being imported from Great Britain. This is one of Australia's contributions to Empire defence. She intends to build airplanes not only for her own use, but for Great Britain as well.

Canada is increasing her percentage of divorces in relation to marriages. In 1916 that percentage was .10; now it is 2.13. Since the Great War most countries show a growth in the number of divorces. In England and Wales, in 1916, the percentage was .35; now it is 1.36. Australia, which twenty-three years ago had a percentage of 1.53, now has 4.15, and New Zealand in the same period has increased her percentage from 2.41 to 6.15. These figures point to a growing laxity in morals.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

One of the senior insurance companies of this continent did a very sensible thing this week. It reminded the public of the necessity for mental relaxation, through hobbies or by some form of effort not immediately connected with one's work. The firm went further and founded a whole advertising campaign on the warning that recreation was as necessary for the human mind as relaxation is for the tired muscles of the body. The case requires no proof; but the campaign is timely recognition of the part over-work and worry play in breaking down health.

The first relaxation that everyone can both afford and apply is to forget the day's work when it is done. Yet not more than a fraction of mankind has learned to do that. Mentally, when we lock the office for the day, we should throw the key away. Yet the school teacher takes home essays for correction; the politician, speeches to be made; the merchant, problems that refused to be solved in working hours; and each one something that could be better left at the place of work. We plead necessity for the practice, and say that necessity knows no law. Neither does ill health.

The problem goes deeper than that. The mere absence of work to be done is a benefit, but not of itself a change. What the mind, which seldom stands entirely idle, needs is a change of mental scenery; a different set of facts to go to work upon. It is here that the hobby triumphs. A hobby engages the mind, coaxes it away from the beaten track of routine work, lures it into new fields, and rests it by removing the urgency of doing a particular thing at a particular time. A hobby, in short, is something we can work at with the supreme pleasure of knowing that we do not have to work at it at all. The pressure, fret and worry of the case is gone.

Here a different problem can be interjected, and quite often is. There are records of individuals whose hobbies ride them. Only the diarist can tell of the personal tyranny of a diary. Only the golfer can save himself from turning his game into an obsession or a chore. Keeping a hobby in its proper place as a hobby, there are endless pursuits and relaxations which can be called to the rescue in the off-duty and not-yet-ready-to-sit-down hours of the normal working day.

The insurance company, with insidious powers of suggestion, prints an illustration of a man fly-fishing in a rippling mountain brook. That one picture alone will set every fisherman in the country on edge, until he has overhauled his tackle and reached the side of some stream. Another illustration depicts a camera-hunter stalking pictorial game. And so on. In the cities, one could add basement machine shops, where judges turn a cunning lathe; miniature garden railways; model aircraft factories; and a long and worthy line of reflected pleasures, masquerading in the guise of real hard work.

There are, of course, some fortunate people who like their daily work. But even there, custom will make stale some of the original spirit with which such work was once approached. Once it was thought that it was sufficient for man to change from work with his head to physical recreation, and vice versa. No doubt that is still helpful. Today, however, the increased tempo of life, the multiplicity of extraneous irritations, to say nothing of apparently ceaseless world anxiety, are using up the reserve forces of the average mind. We are making too big a draft on nature, without putting anything back.

This column would like to join hands with the insurance firm in that sensible plea. Life would kill anyone if they decided they must watch it all, and take it seriously. So don't be too selfish about worry. Leave a little of it for the other fellow. When the day's work is completed—and that means finished to the last task—give yourself a rest. Not only finish the job, but, mentally, throw the key away. Make time to live, as well as to exist.

"What does my husband need most, doctor?"

Quiet, madam. Here's a prescription for an opiate. I want you to take one of these powders three times a day."

DENIES STORY OF PEACE PROPOSAL

President Roosevelt Says No Attempt Made to Confer With Dictators at Sea

HYDE PARK, N.Y., April 28 (AP).—President Roosevelt today declared as "not true" a New York Times story that he had proposed last year that Premier Mussolini and Chancellor Hitler meet him at sea to discuss their minimum terms for peace.

The President authorized the following statement:

"I have read the Krock story in The New York Times. It is not true, but otherwise it is interesting and well written."

The Times story, sent from Washington under the signature of Correspondent Arthur Krock, declared the President's purpose in suggesting such a conference was "to learn from the dictators at first hand their minimum terms for pledging lasting peace and, if he found these practical, to offer his services as intermediary.

Park Chickens Here

A battery of new chicken coops erected in the public market yard bear the sign, "Parking Fee, Ten Cents." It sounds quite logical, since hens brought to the city should be parked somewhere . . . "The time is not far off when women will get men's wages," a customer told Bill, the Broad Street barber. "What is new about that? One gets mine every Saturday night," Willie grinned . . . Wonder what color cows would turn if they ever heard the cowboy songs inflicted on the radio public? . . . Our tobacconist friend defines a boom as a time when people make themselves feel rich by charging one another too much for everything . . . Historians now claim the original Lambeth Walk was a walk of death, across the bottom of the Thames River in England. Squire Taggart, a twelfth century judge of the city of London and a leader of a gang of criminals on the side, for years sentenced his victims to what was then known as the Lambeth Walk. They were made to walk across the River from London to Lambeth. Each victim was weighted down with stones, and with a rope tied around his waist, was dragged across the river by Taggart's henchmen in a boat. Survivors of the walk were naturally few. Enraged Londoners eventually turned the tables on Squire Taggart and his gang. They met the same fate.—G.B.

Glancing Over Sport

The Fairfield "Giants," which played during the interval of both Tuesday's and Thursday's basketball games at the Willows, between the Dominoes and Windsor, are ten little fellows from the Sir James Douglas School. This institution housed such well-known basketball players in past years as the two Patrick boys, Lynn and Murray, and more recently had Hank Rowe, Gordie Patterson and Bert Davies in the class rooms. Who knows but some of these youngsters may be playing in a Canadian final in the future . . . Do you know that Paavo Nurmi, one of the greatest distance runners of all time, is now running a haberdashery in Helsingfors in Finland? Nurmi expects to clean up a fortune during the next Olympic Games in 1940 . . . According to reports the only local football team entered in the Canadian series to date is Spencers of the Wednesday League. This club is expected to be the only one to fly Victoria's colors in this year's competition. However, the departmental squad will be greatly strengthened . . . The famous Edmonton Grads lost their first basketball game in many starts the other evening to the St. Louis Legions in the first of a series for possession of the Underwood Trophy and international supremacy. It's real news when the Grads lose a game, but they will come back and retain the crown they have held since 1923.—J.D.

APPROVE INSURANCE

CALGARY, April 28 (CP) — The Calgary Hospitals Board last night approved a public liability insurance policy, specifying limits of $25,000 and $40,000, at a premium of $3,012 for a three-year period.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of April 29, 1889)

A Yachtman's Plans — Captain Dewar's handsome pleasure yacht, the Nyanza, which has been lying at anchor in Esquimalt Harbor for the past week, will sail tomorrow for Alaska, where the captain and Mrs. Dewar intend spending a few weeks before going on to Japan. Here Mrs. Dewar will leave her husband and proceed home to England, while he continues his voyage around the world. Captain Dewar has recently decided upon having built a magnificent steam yacht, the designs for which have been already prepared, and which will cost over $100,000. The new floating palace will be of only about six feet draught, will make 20 knots, and will be ready for launching in about eighteen months. In it, the owner proposes to make the ascent of Russia's famous river, the Volga.

Picture of Victoria—Robert Jamieson, stationer, has just issued a large oblong picture of Victoria, printed by the West Shore. Like all the work turned out by that establishment, the picture is an artistic piece of lithography. The view is from the Government Buildings, and gives an excellent likeness of James Bay, the harbor and waterfront.

Local Briefs—A panther, measuring eight feet from tip to tip was shot in the Highland district yesterday morning by H. C. Pike. The animal has destroyed many sheep during the past few weeks, and the farmers are accordingly jubilant over its death. The printing committee for May 24 celebration will meet at the City Hall this evening.

TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM

Sir,—An April 13 property owners of the city were asked at a plebiscite if they favored continuation of street cars for three years. The measure fell eighty-four votes short of the necessary three-fifths majority as required by Section 177 of the Municipal Act.

This meant that tram continuation was defeated, requiring Mayor Andrew McGavin and the City Council to advertise for tenders to create a new transportation system. The dictatorial Victoria Street Railwaymen's Association wants the council to disregard the provisions of the Municipal Act, which governs the actions of every municipality in the Province, and to seek special authority from the Provincial Legislature to continue the antiquated street cars.

At least three of the present street cars are fifty years old. They, and most of the others in service, are noisy, dirty, slow, and have rickety bodies fast falling to pieces. I fear a thorough examination by a Government safety inspector would result in a number being instantly condemned as a public menace.

Those who ask us to pay six cents for a ride in one of the dilapidated vehicles have colossal nerve. Three cents should be ample. Years ago when the trams were in good shape the fare was only five cents. Everybody with a radio set knows that they are the chief source of interference with programmes.

Surely Victoria is entitled to a modern transportation system! Buses seem to be indicated. It would be a sad state of affairs if the mayor and council placed the interests of a handful of company employees before the welfare and comfort of Greater Victoria. The employees have no right to attempt to dictate to the municipal government.

Our present street railway system is a decadent joke. The rails are bent, and ties are sinking from dry rot. An agreement to keep streets abutting the rails in good repair has been ignored for many years.

Presumably the company intends to spend $20,000 per year on special maintenance if the trams continue. To recondition the entire system and make a ride worth six cents would cost about $200,000 for new street cars, track, ties and overhead wires. Hence $20,000 would be a mere drop in the bucket with little or nothing to show as the result.

Mayor McGavin should be congratulated for his efforts to secure lower light and power rates, and better transportation. Unfortunately the apathy of several aldermen undoubtedly proves they do not want the light and transportation issues settled.

Buses would bring a lot of new money to the city, in addition to the creation of many new jobs. There is no reason why Victoria should not ride in comfort.

MORMON CRICKETS

Sir,—Regarding the news report on the front page of The Colonist for Sunday, April 16, which told of a big fight being waged against Mormon crickets in Oregon, it is interesting to recall the reason for the rather unusual name given these destructive insects.

In the Summer of 1848, members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, commonly called Mormons, who had settled Great Salt Lake Valley the year before, were busily engaged in cultivating their crops when the tender vegetation was suddenly covered by myriads of greedy crickets. Men, women and children used every means at their disposal to drive off or destroy the enemy, but to no purpose. The insects seemed to increase in numbers.

The little colony at this time, history tells us, was many hundreds of miles from civilization with no means of travel or even communication, save the slowly moving oxcart. A crop failure was a very serious thing to contemplate under such conditions. All human efforts having failed, the people fell upon their knees in the fields and sought Divine assistance. Soon there appeared on the scene innumerable large white birds which terrified the people at first, for they feared that they had come to complete the work of destruction which the crickets had begun; but, as they settled upon the fields it was seen that they were sea gulls, and they had come to devour the insects instead of the crops. The birds gorged themselves, vomiting up the insects and eating more, until they had destroyed them. The crops were saved; what seemed like a miracle had happened; and this is the origin of the name Mormon cricket.

A substantial and attractive monument commemorating the incident I have described has been erected in Salt Lake City. It may be found near the great Tabernacle on beautiful Temple Square. I have seen it many times.

NEW SILVER DOLLAR CIRCULATING IN MAY TO MARK ROYAL VISIT

The announcement is confirmed that a new silver dollar of commemorative design is being struck by the Royal Mint to mark the visit of Their Majesties, King George and Queen Elizabeth to the Dominion.

The new silver dollar differs in design from the two issues that are now in circulation. The obverse impression (face side) bears the likeness of His Majesty King George the Sixth with the inscription—"Georgivs VI D:G: Rex Et Ind: Imp."

In place of the customary northern scene—canoe, voyageur, Indian, lake and wooded island—the reverse side shows the Central Block of the Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, with the stately Peace Tower in the centre. Surmounting this design is the inscription—"Fide Svorvm Regnat."

The first silver dollar was struck in honor of the Jubilee of the late King George V. and the second issue after the accession of His Majesty. The silver dollar will be available early in May at all branches of chartered banks.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of low water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock, add 16.9 feet.

HARD-OF-HEARING CLUB

The Victoria Club for the Hard-of-Hearing has had to change the date of the concert which was to have been held in the club-rooms this evening, to Saturday, May 6. All members and friends are asked to note the change.

According to Culbertson

Many of the best plays to be found at the bridge table require a complicated technique. Others, however, are essentially simple. Take the hold-up play, for example. It should not be difficult for any experienced player to figure out when a hold-up play is advisable and when it is not.

Let us consider such a simple, yet representative, example as the hand shown below:

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 NT	Pass	3 NT	Pass
Pass	Pass

Technically speaking, to justify raising an opening one no trump bid to three, responder should hold two and one-half honor tricks or more, unless he has a long suit with two tricks. In this case, however, North had intermediate cards to bolster his two plus honor tricks and therefore was correct in his bid.

West opened the five of spades and East played the queen. Right here declarer had to resist the natural impulse to grab the trick. Most players in the South position would jump at the chance to capture the queen with the king and only after doing so would stop to think of their next move. This declarer made no such error. Before playing from his own hand he considered the future course of play. It was immediately obvious that the establishment of either the heart or the club suit would involve finesses into the East hand. If declarer accepted his spade king on the first trick and it later developed that East had the heart king, a spade return through the J-6 might easily be fatal. Declarer could not be sure whether West had started with five spades or with only four, but in either case a play was available by which the danger of losing many spade tricks could be avoided. That play was simply to make East a present of the first trick.

Note that after that it did not matter whether East still had two spades or only one. In the former event West's suit could only be four long, hence not dangerous. In the later event East could return a spade at the second trick, but later, if he gained the lead with the heart king or club queen, would have no more spades.

East returned the spade nine and West captured the declarer's jack with the ace. This play clearly told declarer that East was now out of spades, because if West had opened a four card suit he would have conceded the second trick to declarer in order to leave a spade communication card in the East hand. West shifted to the diamond nine on the theory that this was not likely to do any harm and that it might do good. Declarer won in his own hand and had to consider the relative merits of the finesses in hearts and clubs. After only a moment's thought he properly elected to set up dummy's heart suit. The reason was this: Even if the heart finesse were to lose, three heart tricks would be available and these, with two top clubs, three diamonds, and one spade, would round out the contract. But if the club finesse lost there would be no assurance of three club tricks, since a 3-3 break of the suit still would be required.

The heart queen was led and passed and East won with the king. Declarer won the diamond return, cashed the heart jack, and overtook the ten spot in order to cash the nine. Now, since he still had spades and diamonds safely controlled, he could try the club finesse for an extra trick. He returned to his own club ace and led to the jack. When it lost to East's queen the rest of the tricks could be claimed by the declarer.

Canadian Destroyer Flotilla Home From West Indies Waters

Grey warcraft Reached Esquimalt Harbor Yesterday Morning After Spending Several Months Cruising and Exercising With Atlantic Ships

Back from a cruise which occupied slightly more than three months and took them to the West Indies and back, H.M.C.N. destroyers Ottawa, Fraser, St. Laurent and Restigouche steamed into Esquimalt Harbor at 7:45 o'clock yesterday morning.

Since leaving their base here on January 24, the destroyers, including the time spent in exercising with the Atlantic Division and the America and West Indies Squadron of the Royal Navy, steamed altogether some 13,000 miles, officers of the Ottawa stated after the arrival of the ships here.

The home-coming of the naval craft was featured with the usual happy reunions of loved ones and the cheery greetings of shore friends. Long before the hour set for the arrival of the little flotilla, sizeable throngs had gathered on the naval jetty, the ordnance wharf and lined the edge of the facing of the outfitting basin. Family groups predominated, while army, navy and mounted police uniforms supplied touches of color to the several gatherings.

ORDER OF ARRIVAL

Leading the ships into the harbor, H.M.C.S. Ottawa, Captain (D) G. C. Jones, R.C.N., kept well over to the northern shore, allowing the Restigouche and the Fraser to pass by to their berths at ordnance wharf and the outfitting basin, when she came in alongside the naval jetty followed by the St. Laurent.

Immediately the gangplank was in place, Lieut.-Commander C. D. Donald, R.C.N., officer of the guard, went aboard to pay his respects to Captain Jones, of the Ottawa, who later in the day proceeded to naval headquarters and reported to Captain V. G. Brodeur, R.C.N., captain-in-charge, H.M.C. Naval Establishments, Esquimalt.

Outlining the highlights of the cruise which the destroyers had just completed, Lieut. H. F. Pullen, R.C.N., executive officer of the Ottawa, told representatives of the press what ports were visited and of exercises with the Skeena and the Saguenay, when the six destroyers of the Canadian Navy were together for the first time, and of extensive and most interesting manoeuvres with the America and West Indies Squadron of the Royal Navy, consisting of the flagship York and cruisers Exeter, Berwick, Ajax and Orion, in Atlantic waters.

Leaving Esquimalt, the ships touched at San Pedro, Canal ports and Kingston, where the Esquimalt vessels were joined by the ships from Halifax. At Kingston, for three weeks, the six destroyers then shifted to Bermuda where extensive exercises were performed in company with the Royal Navy vessels. There, in addition to gunnery and other tactics, the fleet regatta, including rowing and sailing events, provided keen competion between crews, in which the Esquimalt participants got their share of wins.

WARMLY WELCOMED

On the return trip, the fleet left Bermuda, April 1. Easter was spent in the Canal Zone. On the way north, San Pedro, where they were warmly welcomed by United States Navy men, was reached on April 21. Spending several days there, the final leg of the cruise was started on April 24, when the destroyers were headed for home.

During the cruise, the ships encountered a variety of weather. At times, especially when the ships were manoeuvring with the West Indies units, the sea was stormy, but crossing the Carribean it was delightful, Lieut. Pullen recalled.

Aboard the destroyers there were a total complement of 649 officers and men, including groups of Royal Canadian Navy Volunteer Reserve men from various points of Canada west of Winnipeg, the majority of whom were having their first deep-water experiences.

The returning ships were commanded as follows: Ottawa, Captain (D) George C. Jones; St. Laurent, Lieut.-Commander A. M. Hope; Restigouche, Lieut.-Commander W. B. L. Holms; and Fraser, Lieut.-Commander W. B. Greery.

Navy Back in Home Port

When the destroyers of His Majesty's Canadian Navy were made fast at their dockyard berths early yesterday morning, they provided many pictures of family reunions and fond embraces when the sailors got ashore. Top shows Able Seaman F. Wells being greeted by his wife and child; while the lower picture represents one of many scenes witnessed by visitors who were on hand when the ships arrived from their Winter cruise to the West Indies.

The British freighter King James was loading for South Africa and was expected to get away last evening for Chemainus, while the Danish freighter Columbia was stowing the commodity for United Kingdom ports. She was due to sail overnight for Port Alberni.

SAILOR RECOVERS

John H. Pegg, seaman of H.M.C.S. St. Laurent, who was stricken with pneumonia on the homeward cruise from the West Indies, was transferred to hospital on the arrival of the destroyer here yesterday. He came north on the Fraser, which carries a naval doctor, after having been treated at the United States naval hospital at San Diego. The patient was doing well, it was stated on the arrival of the ships here yesterday, and after a rest will travel to his home in Hamilton, Ontario.

Police Needed at Seattle Pier in Sailing Dispute

SEATTLE, April 28 (CP).—Police were sent to Pier 11-B today when rival Labor unions disputed the scheduled sailing of three cannery tender ships to Alaska, following an outbreak at another pier late yesterday in which six men were injured.

The P. E. Harris Company operating the tenders, the Trojan, Amelie and Morzhovoi, said the were being prepared to sail. A sailing a month ago was canceled.

Canadian Pacific Sailor Jailed by Japanese Police

YOKOHAMA, April 28 (CP).—Robert Chester Darker, thirty-one, of Vancouver, a sailor on the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Japan, was jailed today on a charge of assault and battery of a waterfront policeman.

The altercation occurred an hour before the ship sailed, while police were examining the ship's papers. Darker was held in a Yokohama jail.

NONE THE WORSE FOR EXPERIENCE

Vancouver Youth Tells About Chewing Dried Leather and Eating Tasteless Mussels

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP).—Hector Morrison, twenty-three-year-old Vancouver youth who spent four days on the open Pacific in a twenty-eight-foot yawl without food, was home today and apparently little the worse for his experience.

Morrison and Daniel M. Hunsacker of Los Angeles, were picked up on March 19 about 300 miles southwest of Balboa in the Canal Zone by a Swedish steamer. The Vancouver lad arrived home last night and told interviewers of the experience.

When their food ran out it became necessary for them to chew dried leather and eat mussels scraped off the bottom of the boat.

"The leather was some I had bought to make a jacket," Morrison said. "We fried it, chewed it, then spit it out. It helped some.

"The mussels had no taste—neither good nor bad."

Morrison said he would not like to repeat the adventure.

TUG SANK IN FALSE CREEK

Tanker Rams Craft Amidships Throwing Engineer Into Water

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP).—The fifty-foot tugboat Ella McKenzie lay in twenty feet of water near the north shore of False Creek where she sank here today, a short time after being rammed amidships by the oil tanker Aleutian Native.

Engineer Howard Randall, of the Ella McKenzie, was knocked from the tug's deck into the water by the force of the impact which opened the vessel's hull. He clung to a half-submerged rowboat until hauled to safety by William Burchell, attendant on a nearby oil barge. Attendants at hospital, where he was taken, said he suffered only from shock.

Captain Alfred Jorgenson, of the Ella McKenzie, and Sam Macintosh, mate, were adrift for a time on a loaded dump barge which the tug was towing out of False Creek at the time of the collision. They were taken off by the harbor fireboat which then helped the tanker in preventing the tugboat from sinking in mid-stream.

The two larger vessels put lines onto the tug and towed it to the side of the channel.

Captain Jorgenson said the tanker, owned by Signal Oil Co., Limited, had apparently got into shallow water and veered sharply toward the channel, the tug and scow being unable to swing clear.

VANCOUVER SHIPPING

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP).—The Vancouver Fishing Vessel Owners' Association is making arrangements to stage a decorated parade of fishing boats in the harbor on the occasion of the King and Queen's visit. Vessels of the newly-created Fishermen's Naval Reserve will also take part.

Captain H. E. Nedden, veteran commodore captain of the Canadian National Railways Pacific Coast fleet, will command the Prince Robert when the vessel returns the King and Queen to the Mainland from Victoria next month.

Twelve hundred tons of iron pyrites, originally valued at $4,000 and destined for Belgium, is at the bottom of Burrard Inlet, ruined by salt water. Damage was originally caused by the fire which broke out aboard the vessel in North Vancouver early this month. Salt water was used to extinguish the blaze.

The motorship Lochavon is due here late Saturday with passengers and cargo from Europe.

There were no halibut landings at Vancouver today.

Operation of the usual Summer schedule of three Northern sailings weekly by the Union Steamship Company will go into effect May 1 and continue until October.

SCRAP IRON TIED UP

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 28 (CP).—A picket line protesting shipment of scrap iron to Japan today tied up the loading of 2,800 tons of scrap aboard the tramp steamer Acadia.

Committee of Industrial Organization longshoremen refused to pass through the picket line.

CLEANING UP COAL HARBOR

Power Yachts Using Anchorage Could Be Used for Coast Defence

OTTAWA, April 28 (CP).—Considerations of national defence were factors in the Government's decision to spend $63,000 in dredging and cleaning up Coal Harbor, a small bay off Vancouver's main harbor, Department of Defence officials said here today.

Coal Harbor is used by the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve and also is a base for the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club. Undoubtedly in time of war, power yachts using the harbor would be commandeered for war purposes, it was said.

A close watch could be kept on the British Columbia coast by small craft using the harbor as a base, the Department of Defence believes.

WILL REQUIRE LICENCE FEES

Halibut and Black Cod Fishing Boats to Pay One Dollar Annually

OTTAWA, April 28 (CP).—The Department of Fisheries announced tonight that under amendments to the British Columbia Fisheries Regulations halibut and black cod fishing will be brought under licence on January 1, 1940. Captains of boats engaged in these fisheries will be required to have an annual licence costing $1.

Another amendment, also made by order-in-council, sets aside Horseshoe Bay, near Vancouver, and a small adjoining area in Howe Sound, as a sport-fish and tourist area which forthwith will be closed to all commercial fishing. Two relatively small areas adjoining the north and south channel jetties at the mouth of the Fraser River also will be closed to commercial fishing of all kinds. The department said purpose of this latter change is to facilitate a reasonable and orderly escapement of salmon at this point.

Under a further amendment purse-seining for herring is prohibited in waters along that portion of the north coast of Graham Island, in the Queen Charlottes, lying between Knox Point and Shag Rock. The department said it is contented that herring seining in those waters is injurious to important salmon trolling operations there and pending an investigation by the Federal Fisheries Research Board the seining operations are being forbidden.

Various other amendments of minor importance respecting commercial fishing have likewise been made, as well as several relating to sport fishing. The latter changes were made at the instance of the Provincial Game Commission.

COMMISSION MAPS PLANS

B.C.-Alaska Group Ends Preliminary Sittings—To Meet in June

Joint meetings of the Canadian and United States sections of the British Columbia — Alaska Road Commission will take place in Victoria about June, if that can be arranged, Hon. Charles Stewart, chairman of the Dominion group said yesterday, as organizational sittings ended here. Federal members of the commission returned to the Mainland last evening on their way East.

The third and final meeting of the present series was held at the Legislative Buildings in the morning, when George P. Napier, assistant chief engineer for the Province and a member of the first Alaska route commission, was examined in connection with the voluminous report presented to the Province at that time.

MAP PROGRAMME

At its Victoria sittings, the commission received further data as to the inside and outside routes to the North; bearing on climate, mileage, elevation of passes and analogous points. While no formal expression of opinion was volunteered, the chairman referred to data favoring an interior route on account of precipitation and climatic factors. The main action taken was to form a programme on which the inquiry would proceed. Examination of the actual route will come later in the year.

While further arrangements were left in the hands of Mr. Stewart, the Canadian section, it was explained, expects to meet here about June, if United States representatives can arrange to come then; and later to make a brief tour of northern communities including Prince George, Hazelton, White Horse and other points affected.

The proceedings, commencing on Thursday and ending yesterday, were conducted in private. Members of the Canadian section included Hon. Charles Stewart, chairman; Brig.-Gen. Thomas Tremblay, J. M. Wardle, J. W. Spencer and Arthur Dixon.

Milk Producers Opposed to Plan

CLOVERDALE, B.C., April 28 (CP).—Fifty independent milk producers voiced opposition to a single agency milk distributing plan here last night.

GOVERNMENT IS ACCUSED OF WASTE

ment to the people generally by removing the sugar tax.

Removal of the 3 per cent excise tax from imported goods, except those entering under the general tariff was attacked by the financial critic.

SEES GLOOMY OUTLOOK

"I predict that the result of the removal of this tax without any corresponding increase in protective tariffs against the imports from nearly all countries of the world will be further unemployment and great loss to the Canadian economy," he said.

Mr. Lawson moved an amendment, amounting to a motion of want of confidence, expressing regret at the Government's failure in three directions.

The amendment read:

"This House regrets that, in violation of its pledges to the electors, the Government does not propose to lighten by reduction of controllable expenditures the heaviest taxation ever imposed on the Canadian people; taxation retards exchange of goods and expansion of industry, discourages investment in new industries, and perpetuates the major problem of unemployment;

"That the Government has failed to adopt measures for the preservation of domestic markets for the products of the farm and fisheries;

"That no adequate solution has been offered by the Government of vital, pressing problems relating to youth, work and wages for willing hands and co-operation with the provinces towards national understanding and the common good."

C.C.F. SUB-AMENDMENT

M. J. Coldwell (C.C.F., Rosetown-Biggar) followed with a sub-amendment in the following terms:

"This House deplores the failure of the Government to abolish the sales tax of 8 per cent which reduces consumers' purchasing power while at the same time proposing to allow a reduction by the way of a credit against income tax of 10 per cent of certain capital outlays by any firm which undertakes to the stipulated requirements."

Mr. Lawson estimated the Government deficit on current account for the next fiscal year would be $90,000,000 rather than the $60,000,000 forecast by Mr. Dunning. Capital expenditures would bring it to more than $120,000,000.

In assailing the Government for failure to curtail controllable expenditures, he said that the controllable outlay in the last fiscal year was $43,833,000 greater than in the last year of the Bennett Government. Employment of 3,000 more civil servants and the appointment of royal commissions to do the work of the Government contributed to this increase.

MUNICIPAL TAXATION

If the Federal Government would assume responsibility for the relief of all employable unemployed it would make possible a reduction in municipal taxation on real estate which was the greatest deterrent to revival in the construction industry.

Mr. Dunning blamed lack of investment on businessmen, but Mr. Lawson suggested if the Government would enunciate policies which would give reasonable security for investment money would soon flow into new industries.

"Today there is no such security," he said. "Ever since this Government has been in power there has been a constant tinkering with tariff either because of trade agreements or because of reductions contained in budget proposals."

Generally he described the budget as the "Most do nothing of all the budgets he had heard in the House."

POLITE BANDIT IS LAID BY THE HEELS

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP).—Alfred LaPlante, termed Vancouver's "polite bandit" by police, today was sentenced by Magistrate H. S. Wood to three years' imprisonment on each of five charges of robbery with violence.

LaPlante, who pleaded guilty to all charges, was given an additional three-year term on a charge of carrying a revolver. All sentences will run concurrently.

PERSONAL ITEMS and SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

More Leaders Wanted For Girl Guide Work

According to the report of the Provincial Secretary of the Girl Guides, Mrs. Alan Morkill, the past year had been a successful one in Guiding. The Provincial annual meeting in session in Hotel Vancouver yesterday was presided over by Mrs. Morkill, who gave a detailed account of the South Vancouver Island Division, of which the district commissioners are Mrs. L. A. Genge, Miss Leighton, Mrs. Morkill, and acting divisional commissioner, Mrs. Pritchard. There had been a shortage of Guiders, it was stated, but those actively engaged had done yeoman service and the Rangers had geen particularly helpful. The rally, at which Her Excellency the Lady Tweedsmuir took the salute, had been well attended. The cottage at the Sooke Campsite was opened last Summer by Mrs. W. E. Hamber; Miss Mary Oglivie, Blue Diploma-ed Guider, gave a series of training classes during the Winter. Many badges had been won by Guides and four Guides had won the Royal Humane Society's bronze medal for swimming. "Good turns" were done on Guide Day and Thinking Day. Mention was made of the valuable financial help given by the I.O.D.E.

NEW ASSOCIATIONS

Miss Jean Finglass, Provincial secretary, reported that new local associations had been registered at Sooke, Abbotsford, Rossland, Qualicum, Esquimalt and Cloverdale. Thirteen companies had been started during the year as well as two Ranger companies, one Lone Ranger company and fourteen Brownie Packs. Thirteen Guide and one Ranger Company, four packs and several local associations had been cancelled. The total membership last November was 4,433, a slight drop from last year.

The Provincial Shop had a busy year, Miss Finglass said, 2,300 orders being filled and 15,527 articles sold. Ninety-nine new warrants were issued and 15 cancelled, there being a slight increase in the number of commissioners and guiders and a decrease in secretaries.

Clubs-Societies

First Baptist W.U.

The Women's Union of the First Baptist Church held its meeting recently, at which Mrs. George Bishop presided. The reports of the secretary, Mrs. P. M. Holm, and the treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Ridout, were received. Through the corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. H. Bent, the ladies of the Emmanuel Baptist Church extended the Women's Union an invitation to attend an address by Mrs. Harold Wolverton on May 4. Attention was called to the requirements of the Standard of Excellence, and notice given of the rummage sale to be held under the auspices of the Second Mile Club today, at 619 Broughton Street. The White Cross articles were to be placed in charge of Mrs. A. Galbraith and Mrs. H. M. Kyle. Mrs. W. A. Freeman gave items of interest from the Women's Board in Vancouver. After a vocal solo by Mrs. Dawson, accompanied by Miss Q. Tabor, Mrs. H. M. Kyle assumed the leadership of the devotional period, assisted by Mrs. L. Ebert, Mrs. Burkett and Miss Leslie, and continued the programme, presenting "The Key of Sympathy." Brief biographies of Dr. Scudder and Dr. Clara Swain were read by Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Porter. Mrs. A. Slater spoke on "Ills and Treatment," and Mrs. Davey on "India's Needs—Present and Future." A drama, "Where Shall I Hang My Sign," the parts being taken by Mrs. A. Slater, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. W. W. McGill, Miss H. Clyde and Miss M. Miller, completed the programme. The next meeting will be held on May 18.

Members of W.A. Attend Guest Tea

A guest tea held by the Women's Association of the Metropolitan United Church, in the schoolroom on Wednesday afternoon, proved a success. The Alpha Group decorated their table with yellow iris and daffodils in an amber bowl, while amber candlesticks held lighted yellow tapers. Mrs. J. T. Williams was in charge and Mrs. E. C. Weston and Mrs. F. H. Willis, of the Pioneer Group, poured tea. The Pioneer Group members were guests.

At the Loyal Group table Mrs. E. W. Whittington received the guests and Mrs. Aaron Read and Mrs. Walter Staneland poured tea. The table was arranged with pink tulips and mauve hyacinths in a crystal bowl, crystal candlesticks and pale pink tapers.

The Servimus Group was centred with a Maypole, surrounded by little doll figures. Spring flowers and moss. Mrs. Alfred Adams, the president, received the guests and Mrs. Ewart Gee and Mrs. Edward Williams poured tea. The Fidelis Group chose yellow and blue iris in a silver bowl, set on a mirror, as the centrepiece of their table, with silver candlesticks holding tall yellow tapers. Mrs. Edward Parsons and Mrs. Frank Tupman poured tea and Mrs. Crozier Smith was hostess.

Miss F. Bailey was hostess for the Silver Stars' table, at which Mrs. A. J. Daniels and Mrs. W. H. Whiteley presided. Yellow iris and pink snapdragons, arranged in two bowls, were flanked by yellow tapers. Irs. A. E. Whitehouse, the president of the W.A., opened the affair by welcoming the guests with a gracious little speech. Mrs. F. H. Parsons, first vice-president, assisted Mrs. Whitehouse in receiving. Mrs. W. H. Muncy was in charge of an enjoyable programme and on behalf of the organization thanked the contributing artists. Those taking part were Mrs. J. E. Glover, Miss Jean Routley and Keith Littler, soloists, and [illegible] accompanists were Gesty Evans, Miss Audrey Mills and Miss Jean Adams. Young People Arrange Fete At St. John's

A holiday air prevailed at St. John's auditorium on Wednesday evening when the A.Y.P.A. staged a Mother Goose carnival in aid of the parish curate fund. In the absence of Rev. Canon F. A. P. Chadwick, Rev. G. R. V. Bolster opened the fete.

The hall was gaily adorned with lanterns and each stall was representative of some nursery rhyme. Candy, convened by Kay Smith and Thora Harrison, was artistically packaged in little barber poles.

"Mary, Quite Contrary," Miss Dorrie Wright, had charge of butterflies and flowers. The table supervised by Florence Malcolm and Ian Jack as "Jack and Jill" proved most popular; while "Jack Horner," Miss M. Dixon, and his pie fascinated children and adults alike. "Pussy in the Well," with Mr. D. Greensides and Miss B. Clarke, more than met the evening's demands. "Little Miss Muffet," Joan Brice, charmingly managed the tea garden, having Mrs. A. Flucke, Miss R. Oldfield and Miss W. Perkins in attendance. "Goldilocks," Miss Helen Forsyth, had a beautiful display of art needlework and was assisted by Miss Pat Popey and Miss Evelyn Coolidge.

CONTEST WINNERS

Helen Foxall and Audrey Meadmore as nursery folk capably managed the contests of the evening, which were won by Mrs. F. Michelin and Mrs. E. Balmer. "Robin Hood," Phyllis Hobbs, cleverly beguiled prospective followers into showing their marksmanship in Sherwood Forest. Rev. Mr. Bolster taking honors. Mortarboards and diplomas completed the costumes of Larry Crowcroft and Dave Hobbs, who successfully conducted the board games, Mr. S. Hobbs shuffling to high score for the evening. Proving again that everyone loves a sailor, Mr. Reg. Gilan kept his partner, Mr. Carl Miller, busy as fans clamored for recognition on the high seas.

"Old Mother Hubbard," Miss G. Nickolson, needed nothing to complete her happiness as she shyly disposed of the tasty wares in her cupboard. "Dr. Fu Ling You," Mr. D. Jacobs, and his houseboy, Mr. V. Hooper, sauvely ushered unsuspecting persons into the dingy parlor, where was revealed to them the mysteries of the future.

MUSICAL PROGRAMME

Throughout the evening a delightful programme, under the direction of Miss Iris Smith, was given, including vocal selections by the Ariel Trio, Mr. Arthur Jackman, Miss Elsie Fryatt and Miss Iris Smith; Mr. Ronald Hewlett and two graceful dances by Miss Myra Batchelor. Mr. Bolster conducted the log-sawing competitions, for which two saws were loaned by McLennan, McFeely and Prior. Mr. S. Hawkins and Mr. Bert Noel were the winners.

Two water-color paintings on display caused much favorable comment, being painted by twelve-year-old Eleanor Leslie-Melville. The attractive signs used were the work of Margaret Leonard and Rosa Stone. Others on the committee included Miss Lenora Trickett, Mrs. G. Bolster, Mrs. D. Greensides, Messrs. D. Bruce, D. Patterson and J. Marsh.

OVERTIME

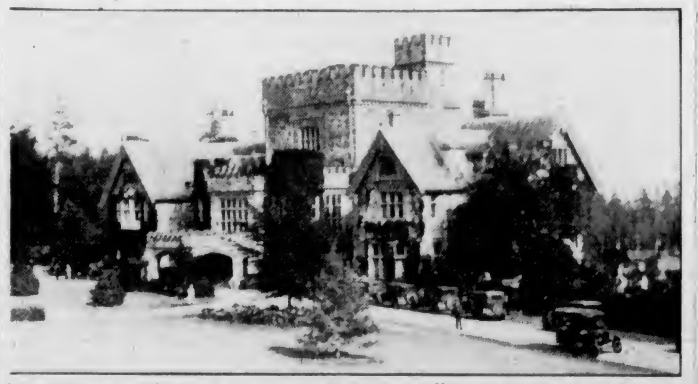

Two Irishmen who occupied an eight-floor flat could not sleep on Sunday morning as the sun would shine in the windows and wake them up. They bought some black paint and painted the windows and then settled down to sleep.

When they woke up they realized they would be late for work, as it was 8.15. They rushed to their jobs, and the foreman looked at them in bewilderment.

Pat said: "Faith, and what's the matter, boss? We're only twenty minutes late."

Said the foreman: "Twenty minutes? Where were you on Monday and Tuesday?"

Visitors from Victoria and Luxton-Happy Valley were present. The rooms were gay with Spring flowers. Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen, Institute president, in a brief speech, told of the aims and objects of institute work, and introduced Mrs. G. Altree-Caley, who gave a talk on "Gardens and Glimpses of England." Many parts of England were described as being the "background of the past," and the speaker especially emphasized the beauty of the yew hedges and cedars of Lebanon, the gardens at Warwick Castle, the New Forest and other parts. Mrs. Phipps served tea, assisted by Mesdames C. Willard, H. Goodman, Franklin, and Misses J. Seabrooke, M. Smedley and Phyllis Sheffield.

Gives Address to Printing Crafts At Function Here

Dugald Campbell, of Vancouver, in an address entitled "Canada in the Next Decade," given to members of the Government Printing Crafts and Social Club at a recent meeting in Terry's private dining-room, presented a fascinating picture of Canada from the time of Confederation to the present. He spoke of the opening up of the West with the influx of immigrants, the building up of cities and railroads, the development of industries, and compared that period with the problems confronting our nation today.

Mr. Campbell, as Western representative of the Canadian Linotype Company, also used illustrations taken from personal observations on his travels throughout Canada and parts of the United States.

Charles F. Banfield, King's Printer for the province of British Columbia, introduced the guest speaker and welcomed him to the meeting as a fellow craftsman. G. S. Carr, the newly-elected president of the club, presided. During the evening Miss Joy Merriman, ventriloquist, provided much enjoyment, and Miss Jean Routley, soprano, accompanied by Miss Audrey Mills, rendered solos. Frank Humphrey moved the vote of thanks to the speaker and assisting artists.

NAMES OVERLOOKED

The names of Miss Joyce Bayliss and M. Gosnell were inadvertently omitted from the report of St. Barnabas' church girls' W.A. programme given on Thursday night. The former contributed a recitation, the latter a harmonica solo.

EFFECTIVE

A heavy drinker consulted his doctor, complaining that he kept seeing white mice in bowler hats. He was advised to keep off liquor, whereupon he went sorrowfully away.

Some weeks later he met the doctor, who cheerfully asked after his health.

"Oh, I feel much better these days, doctor, I decided to increase my dose to two bottles of Scotch a day and now I'm not troubled with mice at all. The elephants usually trample them to death before lunchtime."

Indians Seek to Give Two Canoes For Loyal Token

Chief Paul, of the West Saanich Tribe of Indians, called on Mayor Andrew McGavin yesterday to suggest that he present two seven-foot canoes with paddles to Their Majesties during the Royal visit. Mayor McGavin informed the chief arrangements would have to be ratified by Ottawa.

The canoes would be replicas of the famous war canoes used by generations of Indians on Vancouver Island, Chief Paul explained.

He was asked by Mayor McGavin to submit a sample of a yellow cedar case surmounted by a thunderbird, to be used to contain the city's address of loyalty and welcome to Their Majesties.

LECTURER WILL DISCUSS RUSSIA

"An Ally or an Enemy" Is Subject at Crystal Auditorium

At the Crystal Garden auditorium on Sunday night Rev. S. R. Orr will speak on the subject, "An Alley or an Enemy? Is It Peace or War?" The following questions will be answered: Can a next war be avoided? What does conscription in peace time mean for Britain? What does prophecy say we may expect from any military alliance with Russia? Will it bring nearer or postpone the next war? Is the world's new hope the League of Nations in another form? What kind of a League of Nations can save us? Do we get any help from prophecy on this vital question?

Is Russia imbued with a desire to join a crusade to rescue democracy and to preserve justice in the name of humanity? Can a trail of fraud, deceit, murder and terrorism ever lead Britain and the world along a pathway of peace? Does Russia's recently revealed part in the Spanish conflict encourage us to hope that an alliance will bring security? What Scriptural indications are there that Russia will be our next great enemy?

The congregation is invited to bring a guest for visitors' night. Doors open at 6:30. Community singing will be held at 7:15, with Miss Ethel James at the piano.

CHAPTER VI

"Oh mother!" Alita had to cry, for a few minutes in sheer happiness.

"He needs rest, more'n I do," the mother went on, "Now he can have it. In town, with his friends and all. It's a lot of money. The ranch'll bring a lot more, too."

Alita sat on the bed, arms locked around her knees, looking up at nothing, smiling and dreaming far ahead.

"Town!" she breathed. "Phoenix is bigger than Tucson. Much bigger! People, and parties, and the gay Winter-tourist crowd — they come from New York and everywhere, Mother!—oh gee-e-e!"

Mrs. Bradley patted her shoulder. "I guess you can afford some things now that we had to deny you, honey. You and Don. We'll want you to have the best you can."

You might have searched from the Grand Canyon, which is on Arizona's northern boundary, southward to the Mexican frontier, and in all the State found no man more honest than Edward Daniel Bradley. The State Cattleman's Association knew Ed for a man of his word. He had been the Association's president. He was on the directorate now. He had many staunch friends.

Nevertheless, Ed lacked much. For instance he was impulsive, and overly sentimental. And therefore impractical at times, for all his common sense. A hard luck story from acquaintance or stranger would immediately open his purse. If he desired something he usually just bought it, rarely being as shrewd as he might have been. When he sometimes got broke, he borrowed money at his Phoenix bank to carry him through. His supreme self-confidence always supported him, even though his banker often did reprimand him in sheer exasperation.

If Ed had taken time and looked around, he could have sold his ranch property for much more. As it was, some fellow offered twelve thousand dollars cash and he took it—just like that.

"Your father got stung on that deal," Luther Pool told Alita, on the Monday following the sale. "I would have bought it myself, at that figure. I could have raised some cash on my land, and borrowed the rest at the bank."

"Goodness, Luther, I wish you had!" Alita really meant it. It would be fine to know that you owned the Bar B."

"Well, I didn't buy it, and what's done is done. I just hate to see Mr. Bradley sell out so cheap, though."

"He said he didn't need any more money, Luthe"

No. In a way he doesn't. But he has always been a rancher, and he doesn't know about town life. It costs to live in town, Alita. I learned that much, just going to school.

Luther had been hunched over on his saddle, his voice drawling to Alita who sat in her car. He stared off now, and idly spat at a lizard that dared to crawl up a rock and look saucily at him.

It wasn't very polite, his spitting, but neither of them noticed. Ranch folk aren't hyper-sensitive. And Luther Pool was by no means fully refined anyway. Alita was appraising him, more or less unconsciously. Looking from the seat of her roadster, she saw his large form silhouetted against the blue-blue sky. He wore a grey felt stetson which, while of acrelike proportions, did not seem too big on him. His shirt was red—one of those she had given him at Christmas—and open at the neck. Sleeves were rolled. She could see muscles bulging. knew him to be a powerful man. She had always shoulders, the massiveness of his head and hair. His hair was almost as dark as her own, but not quite. Her half age was part Latin. Martha Bradley, Alita's mother, was of part Spanish blood, had been a senorita in Nogales when Ed married her.

"You look quite handsome today, Luther," Alita told him, quite frankly. "And you are a picture of health, I declare!"

He grinned his thanks. "Oughta be in pictures, sure! Chasing villains. Well the work does agree with me, for a fact. I'd go stale in town, where you're going."

"Luther."

"—Hunh?"

"You don't approve of our moving to town, do you?"

"Why—I Who? Me? Why sure! Anyway—what has it—"

"No, of course, I understand how you feel. But I mean—well, Luther, you have just acted like you didn't. And Luther—you didn't come over to see us yesterday. It was the first Sunday you have missed, as far back as we can remember. That's why I came today."

"Aw shucks, Alita!" he scoffed laughing, trying to cover the pink he could feel. "I just got tied up. But I'm glad you came today."

"I came to say good-bye, Luther. We're moving out at once. Tomorrow."

"That a fact? Well, I hate to see you rush. But I'll shore come in to town as much as I can. I think a lot of you people, you know I do."

"Mother sent me especially to say you'd always be welcome, Luther."

"Your mother? You mean you—? He looked intently at her.

"No. No! I mean—well mother sent the message especially when I started. She's busy with last minute packing and couldn't come. I ought to be there helping her now, Luther, but I wanted to see you. Honest I did. Honest, Luther. Don is still just a kid, brother, and—and, well, you're older and bigger and self reliant. You see what I mean?"

He was staring off now, his strong face set, his blue eyes narrowed a little in the sunlight. "Yeah, I know how it is. How you feel. It's all right."

She wished then that she could cry.

RADIO ADDRESS WILL DEAL WITH DICTATORS

"God's Reply to Hitler" will be the theme of a radio message to be delivered by Rev. L. A. Wilcox over CFCT tomorrow between 1:30 and 2 p.m. Dr. Wilcox, who has been giving for several months past a series of Bible addresses known as "God's Hour," has just returned from a trip, and in this talk promises startling revelations from the prophetic Scriptures of the Berlin-Rome-Tokio alliance, the next war and its amazing climax, brought about by the entrance on the stage of an overwhelming power on which Hitler has not counted. Dr. Wilcox will name this destroyer of dictators.

What Today Means

"TAURUS"

If April 29 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. until noon; from 2 to 4 p.m., and from 8 to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a.m., from 6 to 8 p.m., and from 10 p.m. until midnight.

Dictatorial dictates may be the disturbing factor in many lives today. If you are wise and wish to do your part to help preserve harmonious conditions both in and outside of your home, you will temper your words in such a way that they can in no way be construed as being domineering or in the slightest degree peremptory. The average person will prove to be decidedly independent and extremely sensitive if there is the slightest infringement on his or her personal rights this day. A well-modulated voice, with gracious manners can accomplish wonders. Discretion will prove to be an indispensable safeguard against malicious gossip, for there will be many tongues ready to wag on the slightest pretext on this date. Excuses will be regarded with suspicion, so think twice before offering any. Married and engaged couples and those engaged in Cupid's favorite game—love-making—should remember: There is nothing so easy but that it becomes difficult when you do it with reluctance.

If a woman and April 29 is your birthday, you are probably essentially domestically inclined, with a talent for arranging your household possessions in a very artistic manner. Whatever you do is probably done in a systematic manner. With you it is a matter of habit that largely regulates your daily activities. Your family and friends, with the passage of time, will learn to appreciate you more and more. In a gratifying manner your fine qualities will be recognized and well rewarded. If conditions require your making a living you ought to be a decided success as a teacher, dietitian, artist, musician, broker, author, secretary or interior decorator. You should have no difficulty in making the man you marry very happy, and in so doing get your full share of contentment.

The child born on April 29, while not unduly inquisitive will in its eagerness to acquire information, perhaps be constantly asking the whys and wherefores of things that are puzzling. Explanations are due to this youngster, and should be cheerfully given. Through the acquisition of useful knowledge this child's way through life is apt to be comparatively easy.

If a man and April 29 is your natal day, your strength of character is likely to be sufficiently strong to enable you to overcome any faults you are conscious of. Through promotional political, theological, literary, theatrical or an artistic line of work you may win an enviable reputation and a highly gratifying bank account.

DON'T SPOIL 'EM

Dearest, said Mrs. Newlywed who had made a certain amount of progress with her cookery practice, "what shall I cook for dinner tomorrow?"

"Anything except steak and kidney pudding," said her husband. "That's my favorite dinner."

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS

Some bright young man has just invented a splashless eggbeater. Now that the kitchen has been made livable, why doesn't somebody come through with a splashless automobile tire and a pipeless melon?

DOMINOES DEFEAT WINDSOR TO WIN CAGE TITLE

Cincinnati Takes First Position in The National Loop

Circuit Drive by Ival Goodman in the Ninth With Two on Bases Decides 7-6 Victory Over the Chicago Cubs—St. Louis Browns Defeat Cleveland Indians

By The Canadian Press

St. Louis and Cleveland put on a twenty-six-hit slugging match yesterday before the invading Browns finally won a 9-8 decision at Cleveland to sweep the series. It was the only American League fixture played, as rain and cold curtailed schedules in both circuits.

John Berardino, St. Louis, a newcomer at second base, drove out two doubles and a single to bring home five runs. For the Indians, Hal Trosky, mainly through his two-run fifth inning homer, drove home four.

In the National League, likewise held to a single game by the weather, Cincinnati Reds moved into first place on the strength of a home run by Ival Goodman scoring two ahead of him in the last of the ninth to beat Chicago Cubs, 7-6.

The game started out as a pitching duel between Johnny Vander Meer, of the Reds, and Clay Bryant, of the Cubs, but developed into a touch-and-go slugging battle after Hank Leiber homered in the fourth to send the Cubs in front.

Vander Meer was followed by four other pitchers and Bryant by two.

Galatea II Wins Newmarket Race By Three Lengths

NEWMARKET, England, April 28 (CP). — Coming from behind with a burst of speed just beyond the halfway post R. S. Clark's Galatea II, by Dark Legend out of Galaday II, today whipped seventeen of the year's best three-year-old fillies to win the One Thousand Guineas Stakes.

The American-owned filly, a 6-to-1 shot, won by three lengths after clipping off the classic mile in 1:38 3-5. Aurora, quoted at 7 to 1, was second, with Olein, the early pacemaker, a half length further back in third place. Olein was heavily backed at 9 to 2.

Infra Red came home fourth and Streakaway fifth in the field of eighteen.

CUP FINAL SET TODAY

Wolverhampton Will Be at Full Strength for Match With Portsmouth

LONDON, April 28 (AP).—Britons, who get only mildly aroused over Hitler and Mussolini, are in a fine lather of argument over the question "to inject or not to inject" players in tomorrow's football cup final.

Portsmouth and Wolverhampton meet for the championship, but that's only half the story. The other half is the season-long injections of "vitamin" gland stimulants to players on both teams.

There was an outcry when the lagging players first turned to trainers and bellowed, "Quick, Watson, the needle." Diehards couldn't see why football players should need strengthening for their profession.

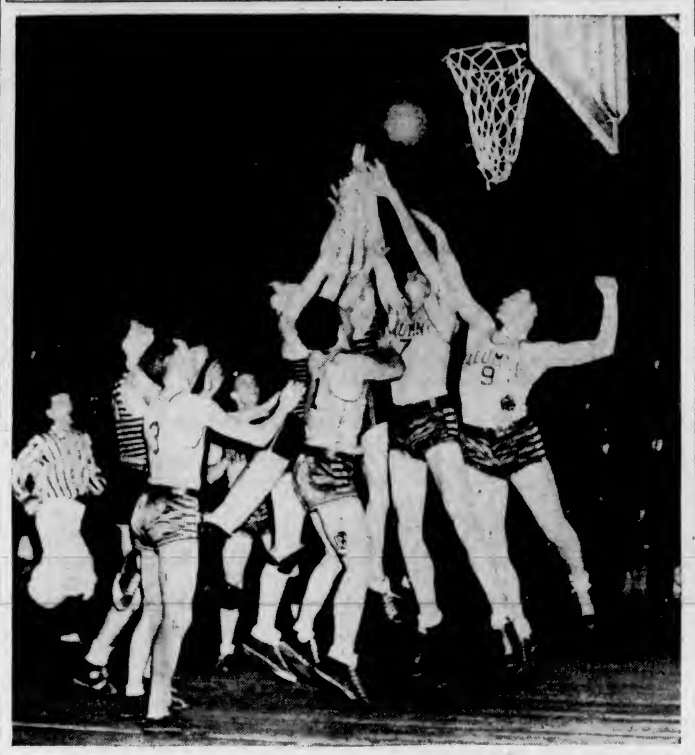

Only three teams in the league used the treatment. Two of them are in the cup final, which is considered a victory for "injectors," but the "non-injectors" contend all teams would use the treatments if they really were worth anything.

Wolverhampton will be at full strength. Burton, right-winger, and Gardiner, left-half, will be in there fully injected and bathed in soda and brine.

EXHIBITION CRICKET

An exhibition cricket match will take place this afternoon at the University School, with the students facing the Victoria club. The latter team will be as follows: Pennington (captain), Sparks, W. J. Moffatt, R. H. Moffatt, Lethaby, Moore, Macdonald, Pudney, Tyhurst, Treherne, Kelly and Harris.

Action Around Windsor Alumni Hoop

Here's some smart action snapped by The Colonist cameraman under the Windsor hoop during last night's final game in the Canadian basketball championship, in which Victoria Dominoes won by a 37-30 score. A record crowd watched the teams battling it out in the fifth and last tussle of the national series. Victoria set up an early lead, being in front at the half, 23-9, to win the decision, despite a desperate last quarter attack by the Eastern titleholders. In this picture, eight of the ten players on the floor can be seen leaping for the ball under the Alumni basket. In the photo there are: Glen Sherman, Jack Blair, Toots Meretsky, Ian Allison and Jimmy Stewart, of Windsor; and Art Chapman, Hank Rowe and "Busher" Jackson, of Victoria. Referee Tim McCullough, Seattle, is seen running in for the play.

MRS. DOWELL WINS CROWN

Defeats Mrs. Enke in Championship Final at Colwood Golf Club

For the second time in the last three years, Mrs. Art Dowell captured the women's championship of the Colwood Golf Club yesterday afternoon by defeating the defending titlist, Mrs. S. Enke, in the eighteen-hole final on the last green. It was one of the closest finals played at the course for a long time and the gallery enjoyed every bit of it. In the first flight play-off, Mrs. H. Bennett won from Mrs. R. L. Pocock, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Dowell moved into an early lead, but Mrs. Enke came back with a three at the eighth and a four at the next green to square the battle and the couple headed down the back stretch on even terms. The lead swung back and forth hole after hole and the couple reached the eighteenth with the match all square again. On the last fairway, Mrs. Enke hit a screaming drive down the middle, but from then on she played poorly en route to the green and finally wound up with a six, which cost her the hole and the match as Mrs. Dowell got her par five.

Victoria Team Scores Great 37-30 Decision Over Eastern Hoopmen

Establishes Early Lead in Opening Half to Give the Capital City Its Third Crown Since 1933 —Hank Rowe Turns in Great Scoring Performance

Locals were always in front, but towards the end of the fixture with only five points between the two fine quintettes and Art Chapman and "Busher" Jackson, two of the Dominoes' better players, off on personals, the crowd was in a frenzy and slightly worried as to the final outcome. Windsor's fight in the third and fouth games, after being badly beaten earlier, gained them considerable respect from the Victoria fans, who were not really sure that the ball game was won. However, with two minutes to go and the visitors making one grand final effort to pull the ball game out of the fire, Dominoes showed that they are championship calibre when they not only held their five-point advantage, but boosted it to seven points before the gong ended the hectic struggle.

PRESENTS TROPHY

Immediately following the game Mayor Andrew McGavin presented the handsome trophy to husky "Chuck" Chapman, skipper of the Victoria Dominoes. The city's chief magistrate congratulated the two clubs on their excellent play, and had a word of praise for the splendid fight and effort put forward by the Windsor cagemen. Johnny Johnson, president of the local club, introduced Mayor McGavin. After receiving the silverware, "Chuck" Chapman spoke briefly. The Victoria "skipper" lauded the Windsor boys for their fine showing on a strange floor and in a series miles from their home town.

Last night's triumph by the Victoria Dominoes marked the third time that the Sportsman's Cup, emblematic of the national cage title, had rested in the British Columbia capital. Victoria Blue Ribbons first achieved the great honor in 1933 and lifted the silverware for a second time two years later. Victoria Dominoes were formed in 1936 and that year journeyed East and lost in straight games to the Windsor Fords. The triumph for the Dominoes was their first in Dominion championships.

Dominoes opened with a burst of speed, and in the first quarter in particular, looked more like the team that turned back the Westerns in the provincial finals. Locals scored sixteen points in this stanza while the visitors were having their work cut out to bag six, and reached the end of the initial quarter on the long end of a 16-6 score.

Locals were really finding the hoop with some lovely shots, and at the same time holding the invaders well out from the basket. Dominoes scored nine points without a return with Art Chapman and "Hank" Rowe doing the firing. Rowe bagged the first basket of the game about a minute from the start and for the remainder of the championship tussle the Dominoes were never on the wrong end of the score sheet.

It was Rowe who did all of the scoring for the locals in the heavy-checking second quarter, firing home seven points to the visitors' three. Windsor failed to score a basket in the stanza, gaing their trio of points from the strip. The clubs reached the half-time interval with the score board reading: Victoria 23, Windsor 9.

WELL IN FRONT

Ian Allison dropped home a basket for the Easterners and Rowe scored five points for the Dominoes to make the count 28-11 half way through the third quarter. Windsor put on a spurt at this stage and fired home four successive baskets, cutting the lead to nine points. Art Chapman scored from the strip, and at the other end of the court Blair made his foul shot count. Art Chapman was awarded another free throw and the local centre made it count. Seconds later he was whistled to the sidelines on four personals with forty-five seconds of the quarter remaining. Davies "canned" the last point of the stanza and the session ended with the tally 31-20 in favor of the locals.

Ian Allison, clever Windsor guard, went to the bench on personal fouls about three minutes after the third quarter got under way. He was the first of four, two from the Dominoes and a like number from the Easterners, to go to the sidelines on fouls.

Windsor scored five field baskets in this stanza and added one shot from the strip, while the Dominoes tallied four times with free throws and collected two foul goals.

The final session was not two minutes old when Sherman, visiting centre, joined Allison on the bench. Again in this quarter Windsor outscored the locals, "potting" ten points to the Dominoes' six. Rowe, a real source of worry to his checks all evening, dropped a field goal and two foul shots, while Taylor and Davies each scored from the strip. Windsor added three baskets and made four "gratis" throws count.

"Busher" Jackson, Victoria forward, who played the entire game with a taped right wrist, went out of the game on personals about three minutes from time. In the dying minutes the visitors rushed in substitutes at the rate of one every five seconds, but the strategy failed to have any effect on the Dominoes.

FINAL POINTS

With one minute to go and the score 35-30, "Hank" Rowe scored two from the strip and the ball game was soon over. The ovation given the newly-crowned champions by the 2,500 fans was deafening. Dominoes were really glad the ball game was over, and so were the fans, as the situation was getting just a little too exciting in the dying minutes.

The final was a fitting conclusion to a most successful season by the Victoria Dominoes, and the outcome will once more place the British Columbia capital on the Canadian basketball map.

In the preliminary game Ramblers eked out a 24-23 victory over the Bombers.

EL CHICO TO RACE TODAY AT JAMAICA

Long-Awaited Duel With Johnstown Set in $20,000 Wood Memorial

NEW YORK, April 28 (AP).—The Wood Memorial mile and seventy yards figures to get back in good standing in the Kentucky Derby "crystal ball" association tomorrow at Jamaica, with the long-awaited duel between El Chico and Johnstown.

Not since Twenty Grand came home in both the Wood and the Derby back in '31 has this $20,000 stake sent its winner to victory at the Downs.

But, with the fourteenth renewal, in which four of the nine entries are eligibles for both the Derby nd the Preakness, and four others are nominees for either one or the other, the situation should change. Of course, Johnstown's speed and Chico's gameness, along with the class packed by Impound and T. M. Dorsett, may mean nothing at all when they start at the Downs or at Pimlico, but it's going to take a lot of running to get past them.

Then, too, there's Volitant, the Saratoga Stable's hopeful which will go in the Preakness but not the Derby. Other Derby eligibles are Mrs. J. D. Hertz' Book Plate and E. W. Duff's Chief Onoway. George D. Widener's Eight-Thirty, like Volitant, is only a Preakness nominee, while Mrs. F. A. Clark's Lovely Night, although in neither, may have something to say about the Wood if it comes up mud.

MATCH IS POSTPONED

The final of the provincial inter-service billiard series for possession of the Louis D. Taylor Cup between Victoria Pro Patria and Vancouver, scheduled here today, has been postponed until a later date. Three members of the Mainland team are on the sick list.

Tribute Paid to Basketballers by Team Coaches

TRIBUTE to the fighting spirit of the Windsor Alumni cagers was paid last night by Coach Eric Cox, of the Victoria Dominoes, newly-crowned Canadian champions, immediately following the final game. Cox said it was a great thrill to win the national title, and thanked every member of the Victoria club for their whole-hearted support throughout the five-game series. Coach Bill Butcher, of Windsor, congratulated the Dominoes and said they were the better club last night. He spoke of the excellent fight displayed by his team, forced to play without the services of George Wiseman, their regular captain. Butcher paid a great tribute to "Hank" Rowe, high-scoring Victoria player, and remarked that he was one of the hardest men in basketball to stop. Rowe scored twenty points in last night's game. Interest in the crucial game hit a new high, and more than 500 fans were unable to gain admission to the Victoria Sports Centre to see the teams in action.

Local Wrestlers Eliminated From Recreation Meet

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP).—Two Victoria wrestlers seeking honors in the provincial recreational amateur wrestling championships here were eliminated in opening bouts tonight, but a third Island contestant—Rudy Leoffler, of Victoria—gained a bye into tomorrow night's finals.

Jimmy Gardner, of Vancouver Young Men's Christian Association, defeated R. Watson, of Victoria Y.M.C.A., in the 134-pound class.

In another bout in the same weight division, Earl Manual, of the International Sports Club, of Vancouver, defeated H. Speller, of Victoria Y.M.C.A.

Canadian Record Goes By Board in the East

Winnipeg Girls' Relay Team Clips Time Off Record At Dominion Meet—Five Manitoba Marks Are Also Established

WINNIPEG, April 28 (CP).—One Canadian and five Manitoba marks were broken tonight as the Canadian swimming championships concluded here.

Four Winnipeg girls knocked two-fifths of a second from the national senior 400 yards free style relay mark when they beat a Vancouver team in 4:28, lowering the record held by Toronto Dolphinets.

Grace Dick, Margaret Taggart, Ethel Gilbert and Kay Gordon swam for Winnipeg and Pat O'Hara, Joan Langdon, Noel Oxenbury and Jean Stanton for Vancouver in the invitation event.

Manitoba records were cracked by seventeen-year-old Kay Gordon in winning the senior women's 100 yards free style, Arnold Eicklepp, Minneapolis, in the 220 yards senior men's free style, Margaret Taggart in the junior 100 yards free style, Joan Langdon in the senior women's 220 yards breast stroke and Tommy Hope, Moose Jaw, Sask., in the junior boys' free style.

The tall Gordon girl added the 100 yards senior free style title to the 220-yard crown she won as the meet opened Thursday.

Kay clipped one and one-fifth seconds from her own Manitoba record as she came from fourth place in the last length to slap the end of the twenty-five-yard pool ahead of Ethel Gilbert, second; Florence Humble, Toronto was third. Time was 1:3 2-5. Noel Oxenbury, Jean Stanton and Pat O'Hara, all of Vancouver, did not place.

On Dockers' Firing Line Here Today

GORDON BELL

FLASHY right winger of the Esquimalt soccer team, who will be at his regular position today when the dockers meet the Garrison in the local final of the Province Cup series. Bell has been named on the British Columbia All-Star eleven and will prove a source of trouble to the Garrison defence. The match will be played at Royal Athletic Park with T. M. Robb as referee. The kick-off is set for 2:45 o'clock. Overtime will be played in the event of a draw at the end of regulation playing time.

MERETSKY TO STAY IN CITY

Captain of Windsor Club to Live in Victoria—May Join Dominoes

Irving "Toots" Meretsky, captain of the Windsor Alumni, basketball champions of Eastern Canada, who took the Victoria Dominoes to a fifth game before conceding defeat in the Canadian finals which ended here last night, will not accompany the team home. Meretsky is staying in Victoria.

"I like this part of the country and I'm looking for a job," he said. "I'd like to be seen in the Domino line-up next year. They are a swell bunch of boys. I've played against them in several finals now, and know how to appreciate them not only as top-ranking hoop artists, but also as the best of sports.

"This youngster, Hank Rowe, is a grand player. He's going places. His twenty points tell the story of the game. All in all a great team won from us. Our boys needed one or two breaks to win. We had them Thursday night. The boys are going home without the Montreal Sportsman's Cup, defeated but not downhearted or ashamed at being beaten by such a team as the Dominoes."

"Toots" says he has a yen for refereeing, and if unable to grab a berth with the new champions, wouldn't mind trying out as a referee next season.

BOXLA ENTRIES CLOSE MONDAY

Victoria Commission Will Operate Five Divisions—Play Opens May 16

Boxla entries for the local sections of the Victoria Boxla Commission will close Monday, May 1, W. C. Moresby, K.C., chairman, announced yesterday. Play will open on May 16.

Four divisions will be operated, with the following age limits: Intermediate, no age limit; junior, under twenty; juvenile "A," under eighteen; juvenile "B," under sixteen; midgets, under fifteen. All ages are taken from January 1 of each season. The above classification is in accordance with the B.C.L.A., and is so arranged to enable the local squads to compete in provincial play-downs.

The Victoria Sports Centre at the Willows will be used for the larger attractions, and during the season efforts will be made to have Mainland clubs appear here in regular Inter-City League matches.

MAINLANDER WINS CROWN

Henry Devine Captures Dominion Boxing Honors In the East

MONTREAL, April 28 (CP).—New champions were crowned in all eight divisions tonight as the Canadian amateur boxing championships came to a close.

In a climax to the three-day tourney that saw four defending titleholders dethroned, husky Larry Bouchard, of Montreal, pounded out a split decision over Dick Syms, of Fort William, Ontario, in the final bout of the night.

Syms was the last of the champions to go, the other three falling last night in preliminary bouts. Bouchard's victory was the third scored by Montreal fighters, and brought this city more titles than any other point. Remaining titles were divided among Vancouver; Cornwall, Ont.; Toronto, Indian Head, Sask., and Winnipeg.

Three Vancouver battlers reached the finals, but only Henry Devine, a featherweight, was able to score a victory. He gained a close decision from Al McGinnis, of Montreal.

Jerry Blanchard, little Cornwall spark plug, pounded out a clean-cut victory over Joey Gagnon, popular Montreal youngster, who dethroned Champion Tony Roberts, of Winnipeg, last night, drubbed Gordon McConachie, third Vancouver fighter, to gain the bantamweight title that eluded him in the final a year ago.

LACROSSE WORKOUT

Conservatives will hold a boxla practice Sunday morning at Athletic Park at 10 o'clock. Players are asked to enter by the Caledonia Street entrance.

CHOIR WILL OFFER VARIED PROGRAMME

The programme to be given by the veteran Arion Club is to be varied and will have popular and new numbers. The concert is to be held on Tuesday evening at the Empress Hotel ballroom and the assisting artists will be Kathleen and William Irvine, using two grand pianos. These two young Victorians have established quite a reputation for their playing and will undoubtedly please the audience. Other soloists from the ranks of the members will be Maurice Chandler, W. Sloan, George Cornelius, Seymour White and Fred Wright.

At the Theatres

ATLAS THEATRE Claude Rains, featured with John Garfield and the six "Dead End" kids in "They Made Me a Criminal," the Warner Bros. picture, which will close tonight at the Atlas Theatre, has the best speaking voice in films, according to the public speaking department of Harvard University.

OAK BAY THEATRE "South Riding," the London Film produced and directed by Victor Saville, will close tonight at the Oak Bay Theatre. It contains an exceptionally large cast headed by Ralph Richardson, Edna Best, Edmund Gwenn, Ann Todd, John Clements and Marie Lohr.

COLUMBIA THEATRE After a successful showing at the Columbia Theatre, Columbia's outdoor drama "Rio Grande," concludes its local run tonight. The picture stars Charles Starrett, with Ann Doran, Dick Curtis, Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers featured in major roles heading a strong supporting cast.

CAPITOL THEATRE Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" tells the story of a phonetics expert who transforms a Cockney flower girl into a lady by teaching her correct speech. Therefore, for the film version of "Pygmalion," now at the Capitol Theatre, the private laboratory of Professor Higgins, played by Leslie Howard, was completely decked with phonetic apparatus.

PLAZA THEATRE Showing for the last time tonight at the Plaza Theatre, "The Duke of West Point" stars Louis Hayward and Tom Brown. James Flavin, an All-American player who made football history for West Point a few years back, coached the lads representing the military academy for the football sequences.

DOMINION THEATRE Basil Rathbone in the perfect-fitting role of the great detective protects Richard Greene and Wendy Barrie from the unearthly beast with baleful eyes and hideous howl that prowls the fog-swept moor in the 20th-Century-Fox filmization of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Hound of the Baskervilles," now showing at the Dominion Theatre.

Gains and Farr Agree on Rounds

LONDON, April 28 (CP).—Larry Gains, veteran negro fighter from Toronto, and Tommy Farr, former British heavyweight champion, have agreed to twelve rounds for their heavyweight bout at Cardiff, May 17, Gains' manager announced today.

"Larry is finished with fifteen-rounders and wants to confine future fights to ten heats but was willing to compromise on this one," he said. Farr was holding out for fifteen rounds.

BALL CLUB IS GIVEN TUSSLE

Tacoma Awarded Honors When Pitcher Refuses To Leave the Game

TACOMA, Wash., April 28 (AP).—Tacoma Tigers were awarded a 9-0 forfeit victory over Yakima Pippins in a Western International League game here tonight when Pitcher Howard Johnson, of the Yakima club, refused to leave the field after being evicted from the game by Umpire Don Stewart.

Johnson, unlike Manager Ray Jacobs and Catcher Lou Lorenz, who had been "chased" a moment earlier, elected to defy Umpire Stewart, who held that the pitcher had deliberately thrown a ball at him while ostensibly warming up a substitute catcher, Hal Schimling.

Lorenz and Jacobs were ordered out of the game for protesting a ruling by Stewart that Lorenz had interfered with an attempt by Pitcher Gordon Mann, of Tacoma, to hit one of Johnson's offerings.

The "blow-up" came in the Tacoma half of the sixth inning and with the Tigers in possession of a 5 to 0 lead, gained at the expense of Joe Kralovich, who started on the mound for Yakima but went to the showers in the fifth after giving up all five runs in that frame.

Colvin won a close decision over Frank Thackeray in the championship singles, 21-20.

TUESDAY'S DRAW

A. McBeath, Mrs. Waldron and F. Bendall vs. J. Jackson, Mrs. Johnson and C. Johnson.

Woods and Findlay vs. Cull and Thomas.

Colvin and Mrs. Hatcher vs. Philbrook and Mrs. Baron.

LIBERALS TO WORK OUT

A workout of the Young Liberals softball team will be held tomorrow morning at Heywood Avenue at 10 o'clock. All players are asked to attend.

MARTIN WITH HAMILTON

HAMILTON, Ont., April 28 (CP).—Scotty Martin, wingman who played with Squamish Redmen in the British Columbia Lacrosse Association last season, will line up with Hamilton in the Ontario Senior "A" series this year, Coach Alex McPherson, of the local club, announced today.

Martin was the western league's leading goal-getter, setting a record of eleven goals in one game against New Westminster Salmonbellies. Other additions to the Hamilton team will be Hugh (Shipwreck) Kelly, from Cornwall's Eastern Canada champions, and Jack Westnefelt, a defenceman from Peterborough.

WINNERS AT UPLANDS

A two-ball foursome competition was held at the Uplands Golf Club yesterday afternoon and Mrs. J. McIlraith and Mrs. W. S. Smith were the winners scoring 96-19—77.

Reputed to be the world's richest man, Mr. John D. Rockefeller was a great believer in "America for the Americans," and did not like foreigners to go over there and make big fortunes.

Once he was talking to a number of rich men who had made their pile in New York, none of whom had been born in America.

"When you come to think of it," he said with a smile, "you are only intruders. You are apt to forget what you owe America for opening the door to you."

"Maybe," said an Irish member of the party, "but here's one thing you forget. I came into this country wid me fare paid an' me clothes on me back. Can you say the same?"

Early Rally Has No Stability in New York Mart

NEW YORK, April 28 (AP).—An early "Hitler rally" turned into a retreat in today's stock market and leading issues were thrown for losses of 1 to 3 points.

The broadcast of the Fuehrer, answering the Roosevelt peace plea, generally was interpreted as somewhat less belligerent than had been expected and markets here and abroad bounced up at the start on the belief another war crisis had gone out the window.

The advancing move on the New York Exchange was short-lived, however, and initial gains were soon wiped out. While prices came up from the lows in the final lap, declines were widely distributed at the close.

The reaction from the forenoon bulge was exceptionally slow. Activity was much better than in recent sessions during the first hour. Transfers totaled 728,430 shares against 537,900 the day before. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was down .5 of a point at 44.1.

Notwithstanding the fairly cheering first quarter statements of Bethlehem and Chrysler, observers suggested domestic business and political clouds were still plentiful enough to restrain the speculative urge.

Bond prices angled slowly higher today.

United States Treasuries, advancing as much as 10-32 point, were foremost in the rise, but utilities and industrials gained fractions. German and Italian bonds recorded fractional gains.

DOW JONES AVERAGES

Dow Jones Averages closed today as follows:

Thirty industrials, 128.38, off 1.40.
Twenty rails, 25.81, off 0.22.
Fifteen utilities, 22.15, off 0.19.
Forty bonds, 87.98, off 0.04.
Total sales, 730,000.

GAINS SCORED BY WHEAT FUTURES

WINNIPEG, April 28 (CP).—Wheat futures prices scored substantial gains on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today on good buying stimulated by an export business in Canadian wheat estimated at 1,250,000 bushels, unfavorable reports from the United States Winter wheat belt and nervousness regarding the European political situation following Chancellor Hitler's speech.

At the close quotations were 5-8 to 3-4 cent higher, with May at 63, July 64 1-8 to 64 1-4 and October 65 1-8 to 65 1-4 cents.

Liverpool dipped 1-8 to 1-2d, while Chicago jumped 1 1-8 to 2 3-8 cents and Buenos Aires was unchanged to 1-4 cent off.

General support was uncovered in oats and barley as well as a little export interest in rye. In the cash wheat market exporters were reported seeking top Northern grades and mills the lower sorts.

TORONTO'S RALLY NOT MAINTAINED

TORONTO, April 28 (CP).—The stock market view of Chancellor Hitler's speech today was that he was neither reassuring nor threatening.

Prices bulged sharply at the opening, but the buying soon eased off and prices began to decline. By closing time 80 per cent of the day's advance had been cancelled. Aggregate turnover of 540,000 shares was the heaviest in two weeks.

The industrials and the golds were up .31 and .34 respectively in the index while the base metals and the Western oils were off slightly.

Smelters was down a point, Hudson Bay 1 1-8, Nickel 1-2 and Noranda was unchanged. Waite Amulet, Pend Oreille and Ventures held to the upside. A half-point loss for McIntyre was the main change in the senior gold group.

Western oils dropped their early gains. Final prices showed losses for Foothills and Davies and a gain of 2 1-2 for Anglo-Canadian.

WHAT'S DOING ON THE LOCAL RETAIL PRODUCE MARKET

Local wholesalers today awaited the arrival of several large shipments of fruit and vegetables from California. Expected are two carloads of California oranges, a carload of California vegetables, a shipment of new potatoes and peas, with the price of the former slightly easier, and a carload of California celery.

Arrivals on Thursday were carloads of oranges, lemons and grapefruit from California, and a shipment of bananas from Central America.

A carload of asparagus from the Okanagan is due on the first of the week. Local asparagus is more plentiful now, wholesalers said. A shipment of asparagus from Kamloops is expected soon.

Hothouse tomatoes and cucumbers are plentiful, and strawberries from California are arriving daily. The price is a little firmer on the latter.

SAYS PROPERTY SOLD TOO LOW

Col. Brooke Stephenson Claims Increase of Values Long Overdue

"Men like Hitler should not be able to prevent the course of business in Victoria," declared Lieutenant-Colonel F. Brooke Stephenson in addressing the Real Estate Board yesterday in Spencer's diningroom. He lamented the apathy shown by members of this calling in failing to take a part in the needed movement to raise the price of real estate in the city to something approaching its proper value.

"Do not let us stop business. We must prepare for peace at the same time as we prepare for war," added Colonel Stephenson.

There was a tendency to advertise only cheap properties for sale, he said. The result was that prospective buyers of real estate came here looking for bargains and expected to underbid. The city in consequence had been "knocked" so long that city lots were sold at ridiculously low prices.

The speaker advised concerted action, with the real estate men leading in a move to restore confidence in the worth of property within the confines of the city. There were decided advantages in living within walking distance of the business section, which should be made a selling point.

JAMES BAY DESIRABLE

With this in view he alluded to the move needed to make James Bay district one of the best residential parts in the city. There were just as imposing sites there as in the surrounding municipalities, the speaker claimed. It was one of the most attractive building locations in the city and should command a better type of homes than many that were being erected there.

Colonel Stephenson refuted the idea that taxes in Victoria were high, declaring that compared with other cities across Canada taxes were low here. The city's worth was known around the world, and every day people were coming to live here. There was a duty cast on all real estate men to raise the prices of property here in the interests of the owners. He advised talking plainly to prospective buyers who sought to pay absurdly low prices for property.

CURIOUS WILL IS RESULT OF ACTION

In the Supreme Court action of C. F. Davie, K.C., and W. H. Hadley vs. Elizabeth Brigden, Mr. Justice Denis Murphy yesterday admitted to probate the will of the late Thomas H. J. D. Piper. Robert D. Harvey appeared for the plaintiffs, and R. A. Wootton for the defendant.

Mr. Piper's will made no provision for next of kin, but named Messrs. Davie and Hadley executors. Under terms of the will, the estate was to be invested and the proceeds used for the benefit of needy ex-service men of British extraction in the Province.

A caveat to prove the will in solemn form was filed by next of kin, and as a result the action took place. Defendants withdrew their objection to the probate. Proceedings will be taken to interpret the will.

"Father," said the sharp little boy, as they sat around the family tea-table, "I saw a deaf and dumb beggar in the street this afternoon and he had an impediment in his speech!"

"A deaf and dumb man with an impediment in his speech!" exclaimed father. "Don't talk nonsense!"

"But he had father," insisted the youngster, "one of his middle fingers was missing."

Jane Dixon Says:

A YOUNG WIFE IS BECOMING DESPERATE DUE TO THE CONSTANT GRUMBLING OF HER HUSBAND OVER MONEY MATTERS.

When a wife writes that her husband is mean and cruel, stingy and hateful, full of criticisms and "cussedness," then winds up with the question, "Do you think he loves me?" this column wants to come right out with the truth:

"No, we do not think your husband loves you. We've never thought that black is white, either, or that an old sore-headed bear with an ugly disposition is a nice warm-hearted cat!

Dear Jane Dixon: We have been married a couple of years, have no children. My husband has a job, makes pretty good wages. My trouble is that he raises cain if I spend a cent on anything except bare necessities. It makes him especially mad if I buy anything to wear. I've bought only a few things since our marriage, because I'd rather be shabby than stand the fussing. When he needs clothes he puts the money in the bank instead, then shows me his worn clothes and tries to shame me by saying: "Look what I have to get along with!"

We have a very modest apartment, just a couple of rooms, nicely furnished though. It is spoiled by all the grouching over the furniture, the constant complaint that we paid too much for it. He says that money should have been put in the bank.

I am for saving, too, but not making it a misery when there is no need for doing so. Even my grocery bill is a cause for quarreling, though I manage always to have well-balanced and tasty meals on a maximum of twenty dollars a month.

When I want to go out for a little pleasure, my husband says all I can think of is going and spending. It's one quarrel after another, with him telling me while he's mad that he does not love me and that he still loves the girl he went with when he was a boy.

I'm sure most of the trouble is caused by his mother, who tries to run our affairs and who insists that we come to live with his family. I tried this once, and it almost broke up our marriage. When I threaten to leave him and go back to my parents' home, where I know I will be welcome, he begs me to stay.

Do you think he really loves me? I'm barely twenty. Should I break with him? Try to get a job? I can't stand much more of this treatment.—"Desperate."

Comment: If your husband is behaving like the sort of rotter you picture in your letter, you had better have a definite understanding with him and have it now. Either he will start behaving like a man and a marriage partner, or you will start putting distance between you and unhappiness. Don't threaten. Be prepared to take action when you put down an ultimatum.

Do this and you will know, soon enough, whether your husband loves you.
